

ITEMS OF NOTE from the Parish Council Sept meeting

Former Councillor Hilda Eastley

The Parish Council was saddened to hear of the death of former Councillor Hilda Eastley. Hilda was a very active Councillor and played a leading part with husband Richard in achieving success in the Britain in Bloom Competition. The trophies from this success are displayed in the Village Hall. The Council stood in silence for a minute in her memory.

Vacancies on the Parish Council.

There were two vacancies on the Parish Council. There will not be a formal election and so the Parish Council can co-opt new members.

The vacancies are advertised on the Website www.lympstone.org and on the Notice boards. As a result of this Richard Eastley has put his name forward. Richard has been a Parish Councillor in the past and has been very active in the Village. He has experience of working with EDDC which will be very useful in the months to come. The Parish Council was pleased to welcome him back as a Parish Councillor.

This still leaves one vacancy and so if you are interested in giving something to your community please contact a Parish Council or the Clerk, Tony Le Riche

Parking on School Hill is becoming a problem again. Not only is there a problem during school drop-off and pick up times but also in the evenings and weekend.

This will be the subject of debate at the next Council meeting on Monday 4th October. If you park in the area at anytime, the Parish Council would like you to come to the meeting to join the discussions. All this is very informal but very important to have the views of those who use the area.

Mobile Library.

DCC are proposing changes to the Mobile Library visits to the Village. The stop at Underhill will be removed but the stop at the car park will be increased to 1 ½ hours and the stop at Meadow Close will be increased from 10 to 20 minutes. This will result in an improved service to the village.

FROM THE EDITOR

Once again a very full Herald – apologies if your article did not appear this month.

INFORMATION INTERCHANGE

Changes in the Lymptone Herald and the on-line version in the form of www.lympstone.org are planned for the next six months. If you would like to be involved in the editorship of either of these, particularly if you have strong Microsoft Word or general computer experience then contact the Chairman of the Parish Council (Rob Longhurst), the Clerk to the Parish Council (Tony Le Riche) or me.

Volunteers to help both with the implementation of the new system and its long-term operation are required. Appropriate training will be given.

POLICE NOTICE

Between the 22nd and 23rd of July a vehicle parked in Underhill was broken into and a sound system and speakers were stolen. Crime number KE/10/1842.

There has recently been a spate of marine thefts in the area of Lypstone and Exmouth. Between the 2nd August and 4th August 2 boats from Lypstone had their outboard motors and other property stolen. The boats were damaged in the removal of the engines. Please can I ask all residents to be particularly vigilant at this time and report anything suspicious. If anyone has any information regarding these thefts, please contact the police quoting KE/10/1987 and KE/10/1988 – enquiries are continuing.

A theft from a vehicle and damage to a CCTV camera took place from a business premises between the 14th and 18th August. KE/10/2118 refers. – Enquiries continuing. KE/10/2184 refers to a theft of copper cabling which was stolen from premises between the 14th-16th August.

Please can all residents be aware that we do seem to be having a small spate of thefts in the area. We recommend that you secure your property as appropriate and remain vigilant. If anybody would like crime prevention advice or would like to join our community messaging scheme, please contact me on the details below.

We have been made aware that towards the end of the school term, there were concerns about parking around the school. Please can I ask all parents/carers to park safely and to avoid parking around the junction of School Hill as this causes reduced vision for people pulling out onto Church Road. Please be mindful of surrounding properties. I will be monitoring the area in the next few weeks.

I am pleased to report that I have returned from Maternity leave and I will be continuing in my role as the Police Community Support Officer for Lypstone. I look forward to getting back on the beat and being in the village. Please contact me on the details below if you wish to discuss any problems or concerns.

MOUNT KILIMANJARO

An update: As many of you will be aware, in early October I'm planning to climb Mount Kilimanjaro in Tanzania to raise funds towards the refurbishment of our Village Hall. Six months of training through the summer has gone very well, and I'm in very good shape for the climb, which is now only 4 weeks away. I am collecting sponsorship as I see people around the village and have also set up an online facility for people to pledge donations to the hall. The internet link for the donation website is: <http://www.justgiving.com/Mt-Kilimanjaro-meets-LVH> (or go to www.justgiving.com and type in 'Nick Millington' into the search facility). You can also phone through pledges to me on 07771 827221 or 01395 272247. 100% of your donations will go towards this vital facility that I'm sure everyone in the village has used before, or will use in the future. I am also using the website as a diary to report on my progress; feel free to have a look. To those who have sponsored me already, thank you very much. To those of you that haven't, there is still time!!

EXETER LITTLE THEATRE COMPANY will bring Oscar Wilde's widely renowned romantic comedy The Importance of Being Earnest to the Exeter Barnfield Theatre from the 28th September – 2nd October. Tickets are £10 or £8 for concessions. To book ring the box office on 01392 270891.

WI.

On a lovely sunny afternoon, it seemed somewhat incongruous to be making Christmas crackers. However, under the guidance of Mrs Ann Hosker we spent a happy hour doing just that!

On a more serious note our Secretary, Diana Budgen, urged members to write to our MP and MEP regarding a resolution passed by the NFWI, which calls for the mandatory labelling of food with its true country of origin in order to increase transparency and support consumer choice. There are many interesting courses and outings available to members in the near future and anyone interested should contact Diana (278152) for more information. The President, Anne Frampton, thanked all helpers for the very successful Summer Supper and Furry Dance teas, both of which boosted the funds considerably.

Diary dates:

Mon. 13th Sept. - Drama Group rehearsals recommence at the Young Club hut at 2.15pm.

Mon. 27th Sept. - Committee meeting at 9 Highcliffe Close at 2.15 pm

Weds. 29th Sept. - Tour of Exmouth's new Lifeboat Station at 2 pm

Sat. 16th Oct – Coffee morning at Methodist Hall, 10.30-12 noon, cakes, books, stalls, etc.

Fri. 22nd Oct - Autumn Council meeting at Guildhall, Plymouth, 10.30am-4 pm. Guest speaker: Monty Halls, the marine biologist and TV presenter whose BBC2 series 'Great Hebridean Escape' was screened recently. Coach transport available.

We have waited a long time to get the speaker for our next meeting on Wed. 3rd October. He is in much demand. Mr Simon Dell will talk about 'Policing the Peninsula' and answer questions at 2.30 pm at the Village Hall. Do join us if you can.

FOOTBALL CLUB

With the new season fast approaching, all at Lypstone football club are looking forward to a much better season this time around. The players have actually been training on Wednesday evenings at Exmouth Community College right through the summer and new first team boss, Duane Greenslade has introduced Tuesday evening beach training on top of that, so the two teams have never been better prepared. To bear this out, the first team are so far unbeaten in the pre-season friendlies and this includes matches against Budleigh Salterton and Exmouth Town.

Duane is being assisted this season by Mike Telford as part of a management shake-up, while the Second team are being led by Mark Murrin and Dave Phillips. It would be great to see the people of Lypstone up on the Cliff on Saturday afternoons. There is nearly always a match on and there is a full list of fixtures up on the noticeboard in The Globe.

All at the club would like to thank all those people who support the club by buying weekly lottery tickets from our outlets in the village pubs and post office - and congratulations to all you lucky winners!

We would also like to thank all of you who came up to watch the Boney Trophy match on Furry Dance day - it was a great show of affection for a very special man. We all miss him a lot.

LYMPSTONE CRICKET CLUB

In the two months since my last report Lypstone's great start to the cricket season has spluttered a little. Three of our scheduled opponents were unable to raise teams on the night and two games were victim to soggy pitches; of the four games played only the last resulted in a win.

In early July the only Sunday game of the season saw Lypstone reduced to 33-8 in their first innings against Erratics, with four villagers failing to score and the rest doing so only very slowly. Some later aggression from Charlie Lenygon and the two Ingham boys – and a mean spell of three overs from David Wright without a run conceded – were not enough to save the day. In the following game the batsmen again failed to get going early enough, the cause against Sunset being lost with the first half of the Lypstone innings yielding only 32-2. Inevitably the villagers were trounced by their visitors, to the tune of 52 runs.

The batsmen did much better against Geriatrics at the Coaver Club, with a spirited start of 45 in four overs by George Greenaway and Patrick Hall, followed by a steady stand of 70 from Gary Abrahams (35) and Robin Tolson (31). In all Lypstone knocked up their best ever 20 overs score of 149-4 – and yet it was not enough! Dropped catches, 26 extras and an individual knock of 74 helped Geriatrics to the big target, despite some mainly decent Lypstone bowling which included a late 3-15 from Greenaway.

At home against Heads and Quickses, Lypstone's 113-4 in a damp drizzle and lousy light was notable mainly for soccer supremo Webster yet again failing to be dismissed, taking his batting average for the season perilously close to 100. The game was restricted to 15 overs each, but though the rain was now steady the Newton St Cyres side had high hopes on 89-3 with three overs to come. Newcomer Cross didn't see it that way though – taking 6 wickets for 9 runs in two overs to snatch victory for the villagers.

FREE ELECTRICITY FROM THE SUN

The Green Umbrella group will put on a Solar pv (photo-voltaic) event October 13th. This is the system in which solar roof panels generate electricity from the sun's energy and the government pays you for doing it! We will have three speakers - two of us who have solar PV systems and a well known local installer of solar pv (Chris Rudge), who will explain the system and the nitty gritty of having it installed, costs and gains, etc. Chris will speak as an expert and not in marketing mode. We will ensure that there is plenty of time for questions. The event is at the Methodist Church in Lypstone on 13th October at 7.30pm. Green Umbrella (enquiries - Jenny Moon 276569).

VILLAGE HALL FUND RAISING LOTTERY

Two more draws of the Village Hall Fund Raising Lottery have taken place. Winners in July were Dr.D.Laney (£73) and Chris Batson (£24). In August winners were Mrs.J. Walter (£73) and Tonie and Carol Beard (£24).

MAKE A LATE DATE WITH THE MAGNETS IN GOBSMACKED AT THE SWAN

Thursday 23rd September - spend an hour or so at the frontier of a cappella music with one of Britain's hottest musical acts, The Magnets. The vocal group are heading for the stars after selling-out the legendary Roundhouse in London and sensational appearances at Glastonbury and the Isle of Wight Festival. Now touring in support of their new album Gobsmacked, the guys enjoyed a triumphant three-week run at the Edinburgh Fringe this month, and continue across the UK and Europe this autumn, but first performing in Lympstone in a special 11pm gig at the Swan Inn, after their Barnfield show in Exeter.

The Magnets are literally a six-man sound machine, fusing glorious harmonies with jaw-dropping beatboxing to make music to rival any band with instruments. Gobsmacked is their most daring show yet, delivered with musical sophistication, cool moves and superb theatrics, but absolutely no musical instruments. Highlights include a sultry version of 'Poker Face' by Lady Gaga (recently performed for Scott Mills on Radio 1), a bossa nova reworking of Bon Jovi's 'Living On A Prayer' and crowd favourite A-Z, a 26 tune mega-medley of songs by bands from AC/DC to The Zutons.

TICKETS PRICE £4 NOW available FROM LYMPSTONE POST OFFICE OR RING 01395 263928.

HEATHFIELD ALLOTMENTS

The Trustees are holding an Open Meeting at the Methodist Hall on Tuesday, 12th October at 7.30 pm. All ploholders and village residents are welcome to attend.

'ALLO, 'ALLO!

So you think you know what happened to The Fallen Madonna in the final episode of the hugely popular and long-running series 'Allo, 'Allo!/? Ah, but was that the true ending? Come to the Village Hall on Saturday 16th October at 7pm (dressed appropriately if you can – 40's style French, English or German), join in a French cafe evening with supper and music, and watch the film of the alternative ending. The film, shot in the village this summer and featuring seven of the village's finest actors in roles they never dreamed they would play, is being shown to help raise funds for the renovation of the Village Hall. Tickets - £10 each - are available now from Barrie Bissett on 269007. You can buy just one or two tickets, or join with friends and book a table of four or eight.

PARISH CHURCH

Congratulations to our vicar-in-charge, Revd. Preb. Ian Morter, who has been appointed to be a Canon at Exeter Cathedral. We will miss his leadership and the many appearances he made at village events but we wish him well. It is not certain when he will be replaced. His last service will be at Holy Trinity on 26th September at 6.30pm.

Georgina Vye will be ordained at St Thomas' Church, Cowick St, Exeter on 27th September at 6pm. All her friends from Lypstone will be welcome. Phone 263044 if you wish to attend.

Church Building work - we hope the work, altering the west end of the church, will begin this month and continue for about six weeks. There may be some disruption but this will be kept to a minimum. We look forward to new glass, entrance doors and an open space at the rear of the church with refreshment facilities.

The Harvest Festival will be held during the first weekend in October. Harvest supper will be on Saturday 2nd, 7 for 7.30 pm and service on Sunday 3rd. The produce will be distributed within the village, to the Open Door Project in Exmouth and the St Petrock's in Exeter.

Produce stall - a huge thank you to all contributors and the many purchasers of the tasty produce which I for one have enjoyed these last few weeks. Looking forward to next year's crop!

The Meaning of Life is _____

This intriguing statement has appeared on telegraph poles throughout the village. The alpha course is designed to ask the questions which will unpick how you may fill in the dots.

New non- Eucharist service. The first of our new, third Sunday, non-Eucharist services will be on 19th September. It will provide a shorter more accessible service for families and anyone who may like to come and join us. The later start of 10am allows for an informal breakfast from 9.30am. All welcome. Sunday School will be every Sunday from the 12th September and will involve the children in the third Sunday Service.

All the usual things, such as the coffee morning on the 28th from 10am to noon, may be found on the notice board under the railway arch.

LYMPSTONE GARDEN CLUB

With the help of many enthusiastic helpers, on 21st August the Garden Club once again staged its Annual Flower and Vegetable Show. There were 560 exhibits to be enjoyed and in the region of 300 people turned up to do just that. After the presentation of the 26 cups by ex-Committee member Tom Pearson, money prizes were awarded to 36 children. The Function Room and outside seating area had again been transformed into an attractive cafe setting.. This has now become a venue for many a social gathering, which is lovely to see! The Committee would like to thank everyone who worked so hard to help at this popular village event, as well as everyone who either entered exhibits or showed their support by attending.

UPGRADED RECYCLING SERVICE

With just over a month to go before the next stage in a major change to household recycling and waste collections in East Devon, a series of information roadshows is to be held in Exmouth to ensure that everyone understands how the new system will work. EDDC's recycling exhibition will be touring the Phase 4 area starting on 4th September. (Lypstone is Stage 5 and will be at least a month later). The exhibition will allow people to come along and ask questions about the new service. Taster leaflets have been delivered to all affected households in Exmouth and these will be followed by more detailed explanations nearer to go-live day – 14th October. The other thing residents and householders will notice is a delivery to their homes of a set of new waste containers to help them take part in this important environmental initiative.

Management Officers have surveyed the areas affected by the new scheme and properties unable to accommodate a wheeled bin will be issued with a gull-proof sack as an alternative. In brief, the change will mean:

- Weekly collections of recycling materials (currently fortnightly)
- New weekly collections of food waste
- Fortnightly collections of landfill waste
- Refuse and recycling will be collected from the kerbside

Some of the food waste is taken to the Holsworthy Bio Gas Plant in North Devon – an anaerobic digestion plant where it is turned into a gas that generates electricity for the National Grid. The remainder goes to a composting plant at Hill Barton,

Woodbury. Over the next few days, each household will be receiving a delivery of three new waste containers:

- A small food waste caddy for the kitchen
- A larger food waste container with a lockable lid to put out by the kerbside
- A lidded wheelie bin for other waste to go to landfill – again to be put out by the kerbside

All households should already have a green box for recycling and residents should carry on using these in the same way as before – with important changes from 14th October:

- Recycling will be collected weekly
- You will be able to recycle plastic bottles in addition to the items you put out before
- Landfill waste will be collected fortnightly in the new wheeled bin.

Members of EDDC's StreetScene team will be available to speak to or visit residents who have any concerns about the new system, or perhaps have special needs: 01395 571 515 www.eastdevon.gov.uk/recycling_and_refuse

32ND SHERRY
MORNING-
SUNDAY 25TH JULY
IN AID OF ANTI-SLAVERY
INTERNATIONAL

We were fortunate to have Simon Hall, (BBC SW Television Reporter), and author as guest at the above event. He performed the Grand Draw with 45 prizes. Music, both vocal and instrumental, was heard for over 6 hours- ranging from bagpipes to a duet by Lorraine, (granddaughter of Sheila and Dave at The Globe pub) and Emily Barnacle – who were so popular that they performed an encore! Thanks to Doc Livingstone for all the arranging, not always an easy task! Food was increased with Brian's Home Made Breads and Devon Cream Scones. As well as running the Bar £1,400 was raised for Anti-Slavery International.

As those present heard this was the last Sherry Morning at Willand, Church Path. There are many reasons for this such as the size of the garden (and its precluding usage of this annual event), public liability insurance, effort required, etc, etc. However with the formation of the Exeter Anti-Slavery Group, (which I am involved with), they will hold a Summer Garden Party on the last Sunday in July- hopefully still in Lympstone, if not somewhere nearby and accessible by rail. Over £20,000 has been raised over 32 occasions, mainly for Anti-Slavery International, although for the first 10 years different charities received the monies raised, including one year to Lympstone Parish Church.

I would like to thank everyone who contributed prizes, beer from MITIE and those who attended. Also all those singers and musicians who readily gave their talents and finally to Brian who had the onerous job of running the bar at great speed - you can't keep a drink waiting! I will keep you all updated to the successor (or the continuation) of the Sherry Morning- but don't forget to keep 31st July 2011 available.

Graham Martin

(Thanks Graham – Job well done)

NEW HOMES

As you are hopefully aware the Council is building a number of council homes for rent in this Parish. It is important that if there are any residents within the Parish who are seeking a home that they register on the Devon Home Choice web site www.devonhomechoice.com, if this isn't possible then contact the Housing Team at the Council 01395 517469. If individuals are not registered then they will not be able to bid for these homes. We intend to advertise these properties via Devon Home Choice, highlighting within the advert that a local connection is preferred. Could you please ensure that the relevant Councillors are aware of this.

LYMPSTONE ON LINE

More and more of us now turn to our computers and go "online" to find out what's going on, where and when. Maybe just keep up-to-date with news or maybe to get answers to specific questions. Information from anywhere in the global 'village' is just a click away.

Our village too has its own website, thanks to the initiative and the endeavours of our Herald editor, Chris Carter. Many of you will be familiar users of it.

With help from a lottery grant, a new website has been commissioned and should be handed over in September. Still to be called www.lympstone.org it will in due course replace the existing website.

What are the plans for the new website?

The Parish Council want to use it to make what we do more transparent and open to scrutiny and comment. Not only will it allow people to access the records of our work, it will also enable you to tell us what you think about local matters we should be addressing, and to have your say about what we do - or possibly don't do!

We see that as an essential step forward but it's not the main purpose or focus of www.lympstone.org. We want it to be a real village electronic "parish pump", so that it is an active forum for discussion of local matters, and social "networking" in the village. To help, for example, to gauge support for new activities or initiatives, and then help to get them going. We are already an extraordinarily active local community and we want the website to help us to thrive even more.

Many of our village organisations already use www.lympstone.org to publicise and champion their own ongoing activities and achievements. Some of our organisations -- like Lympstone Entertainments -- already have their own website and there will be links to those sites. Organisations who don't have their own websites will now be able to have a dedicated section within www.lympstone.org where they can "post" information for their members and others -- in effect a "mini-website".

The new www.lympstone.org will provide an enhanced "listing" of local businesses and provide scope for paid advertising and promotion.

In September we shall be writing to all those village organisations and businesses for which we have contact details about the new website and inviting responses from them. I'd be glad if any organisation or business who has not received a letter by the end of September could let me know.

Whilst in many ways an electronic version of the Herald, it will have the potential to be much more interactive and not restricted by publishing dates or space. It will not replace the Herald -- the Council remain committed to the continuation of the Herald delivered free to every household in the village. We have set up a small group, including councillors and non-councillors, to oversee the operation of the new website and the Herald so as to ensure, amongst other things, that they pursue a coherent and consistent approach to both editorial and advertising matters.

To carry this new initiative forward, we now need HELP from volunteers in the village.

Whilst much of the material on the website will be contributed by village organisations and individuals providing "copy", there will need to be some editorial oversight and, where necessary, control. On-going management of the website will need an "Editor", assisted by a small team of helpers, able to give, maybe, a few hours time regularly. For the next few months, until the planned launch in early 2011, there will be more work involved to enable us to "populate" the web site skeleton that is being built

Volunteers will be particularly welcome in this busy period, especially anyone with skills and experience in website development and management, to whom we may look for either assistance or advice, even though they may not be able or wish to continue to help beyond February.

For the key job of website Editor, we're looking for someone who shares our vision of www.lympstone.org and can show both an enthusiasm and a strategic and practical understanding of how to make that vision come true. He or she will need to be able to communicate that vision to potential contributors and website users and be a successful catalyst in making it happen. Confidence and competence in "domestic" PC computing is essential, as is a willingness to learn more, but it's not necessary to have more advanced IT skills or experience. There might be job share possibilities. This will not be a remunerated appointment but any necessary expenses will be met.

Website development is now at a key stage and recruiting the Editor and supporting team - both short-term and ongoing -- is now our top priority. So please do consider whether you could help, or encourage anyone you think would be suitable to do so. Please contact me if you might be interested - doing so will imply no commitment on your part! -- and I will let you have more information.
