The parish Council requests the Neighbourhood Plan Working Party to complete the Neighbourhood Plan by 28th February 2013. Whilst this may mean that our Neighbourhood Plan is not fully approved, it will serve as a strong guide to community wishes for Lympstone."</li>   <li>c) "The Parish Council notes with concern that EDDC are being slow in responding to our request to apply for government funding for neighbourhood planning - to the extent that they endanger our whole NP. The Clerk should write to our MP - The Rt Hon Hugo Swire - to enlist his support in gaining funding to at least £5,000 (excluding the cost of the Inspector and Referendum which will be met by EDDC). This is made in the light of other parish councils receiving grants of £20,000 or more"</li> </ol>
