

Your films for 2014-15

Films are shown on Fridays from September to April at Lymptone Village Hall. Films are on the second Friday of the month (except March 2015). Doors & licensed bar open at 6.45; the screening starts at 7.30. Bar & ice creams available during the interval. There's a bonus film at the AGM in May.

September 12th

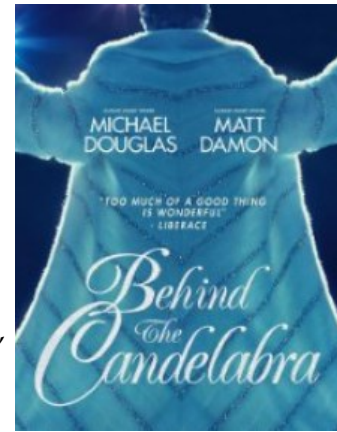

Le Week-End

A romance for grown-ups. Funny and bitter-sweet performances from Jim Broadbent and Lindsay Duncan. Set in Paris. UK 2012

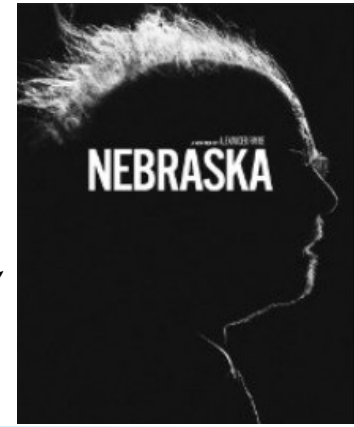

December 13th
Behind the Candelabra

Michael Douglas is Liberace and Matt Damon his lover. "pizazz, humour, poignancy and above all heart" USA 2013

March 6th
Nebraska

A black and white road movie by Alexander Payne. "An absolutely enchanting film, so funny, so touching ..." USA 2013

October 10th Wadjda
A funny, romantic film about a girl's quest to buy a bike. "You'll need a heart of stone not to be won over" Saudi Arabia 2012

January 9th, 2015
Sunset Boulevard
Billy Wilder's brilliant Tinseltown satire. A work of cinematic genius - an all-time great with Gloria Swanson USA 1950

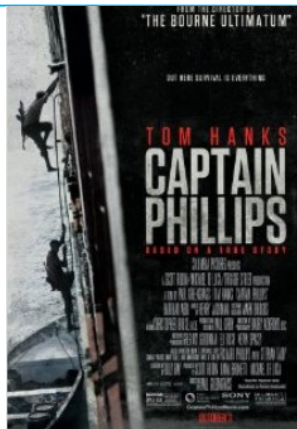

April 11th
What Maisie Knew
Maisie goes to Manhattan in this fine modern-day adaptation of Henry James' novel of irresponsible parenting. USA 2013

November 14th

Captain Phillips

The true story of a hijacking by Somali pirates. "Smart, powerfully acted and incredibly intense" With Tom Hanks. USA 2013

February 13th
The Lunchbox

A romantic's delight. A little gem of a film. "leaves you hungry for Indian food and friendship over loneliness" India 2013. Optional supper before film.

Our Annual General Meeting on Friday 1st May 2015 concludes the season with a bonus film. We'll let you know the one chosen early in the New Year.

Join us as a member - our best value

Membership costs £20 for new members (£5 cheaper than last year and £2.22 per film if you come to all nine!). You can join by ringing Helen Dimond on 01395 223433 or by completing and returning the enclosed form with a cheque payable to Lympstone Film Society. Helen's e-mail is: dimond@hdimond.plus.com

Join for the season - or be flexible

Non-members can see any single film for £5, paid at the door. No need to pre-book, so bring your weekend guests and friends.

Lympstone's Film Makers hope to screen, early in 2015, their new documentary about fishing in Lympstone. Shooting is now under way - you may have already encountered them at the Fish Shed, or by the boat shelter. Look out for date and details in the autumn. Priority booking for members.

About Lympstone Film Society

Set up in 2007, the Society owns its own equipment, including a brand-new latest-generation top quality projector and a powerful sound system, and uses up-to-date Blu-Ray DVD technology .

The Society has around 100 members and offers a complete night out at its screenings - with a bar, short film, adverts, and interval, as well as the main feature.

Our Matinee Programme

Once a month, on a Tuesday afternoon, we show a classic film. Re-live the best of the 40s, 50s 60s and 70s on the big screen with friends and a cup of tea.

This season's dates and films

September 23rd: High Society (1956)

Musical comedy with Sinatra, Crosby, Grace Kelly & Louis Armstrong

October 21st The Innocents (1961)

Deborah Kerr as the haunted governess

November 25th Written on the Wind (1956)

Feuding Texan oil magnates; Hudson & Bacall

December 9th Whisky Galore (1949)

The classic Ealing whisky comedy

2015

January 20th The Railway Children (1970)

Classic book; classic film; Jenny Agutter

February 24th Mildred Pearce (1945)

Joan Crawford in Oscar-winning melodrama

March 24th Charade (1963)

Grant & Hepburn in Paris-based thriller

Films start at 2.15pm in the Methodist Hall, Chapel Road

Doors open at 2.00pm

Admission including tea & biscuits: £3.50
(£2.50 for Film Society members)

Lympstone
Film
Society

2014-2015 Season

9 films for £20

A night out just a walk away

Seven of the best recent films

and one great classic:

Le Week-End

Wadjda

Captain Phillips

Behind the Candelabra

Sunset Boulevard

The Lunchbox

Nebraska

What Maisie Knew

Plus bonus film

after AGM in May
