

PARISH COUNCIL

Parish Burial Ground Former Councillor Jim Bailey has complained about the amount of rubbish that is being left in the cemetery. The compost area was being abused with plastic, cellophane and dry foam; the two bins for non-compostable waste were also abused. The compost has been removed and the bins had been taken out but they are back again and are full. A scheme is in place to provide a new bin compound for the Village Hall and Burial Ground. Jim and others feel that visitors should be asked to take any rubbish home with them to make sure that the area is kept clear. This is a most important way of showing respect for this area.

SWW held a useful Open Session in the Methodist Church to explain the works that they will be carrying out to improve sewerage capacity. This work is vital to reduce the amount of raw sewage that is being pumped into the River Exe. However these are major works and will not happen without some disruption. Half of the car park will be taken up and so alternative car parking has been arranged on land at the top of Underhill Close. Please use this area and do not park on the side of the roads nearby which will only cause more problems for residents. There will also be some temporary parking and speed restrictions whilst large and heavy items are delivered. This is necessary to make sure that these vehicles can get through the village safely. Please be patient if you are caught up in this. Details for the formal traffic orders are given elsewhere in this month's Herald.

New Street Name The Parish Council has been asked to suggest a new name for the houses that are being built off Strawberry Hill. The first suggestion of Strawberry Close was rejected as it is similar to Strawberry Hill so Parish Councillors did some research and suggested some other names of local significance. Now, Guilford Close, Thomas Putt Close and Falklands Close are to be suggested.

Surface water run-off continues to be a problem on Longmeadow Road. It is coming from the development site of Badger Homes. When the houses are built there should be an attenuation tank to hold this back so that it can go into the public sewer but the developer is not obliged to build the tank until the houses are complete and residents of the area have to put up with muddy water running down the road. The Parish Council has objected to this but to no avail. There is also a planning application for a third house on this site. The plans for this show a slightly larger attenuation tank but they also show a considerable area of impermeable surface for each house. Most of the rain water that falls on this area will not find its way into any tank and the run-off will continue. Again, the Parish Council has objected. The application is to be heard at EDDC Planning Committee on Monday 12th June 2017. Cllr Helen Dimond will speak on behalf of the Parish Council but residents can also register to speak. To do this you need to go to the EDDC website and book in. You will not be able to speak if you do not book in beforehand.

Lympstone Entertainments were congratulated by Parish Council Chairman, Cllr Jenny Clark, for the excellent Beethoven recitals that have been put on.

Youth Club Leader Eddie Mingo and his daughter, Lauren have now given notice of resignation. Jenny Clark has written a piece on this on page 13 in this issue.

THE PARISH CHURCH

Produce Stall: This will run, under the railway arch, from 9.30 - 10.30am (or when sold out) Dates to be advised. We need donations of produce, fruit, vegetables, cakes, etc. every week. These can be delivered to the stall each Saturday. Thank you for supporting this valuable fundraising venture.

Sea Sunday The service, which has been held on and off for over 80 years, will be taken by Revd Geoffrey Wrayford this year and will take place by the Sailing Club at 11.45 on 2nd July. Accompanied by the wonderful Lymptstone Training Band

Flower Festival

Lymptstone Church will be celebrating the community life of the village through a Flower Festival from from 6pm Friday 8th September until 4pm on Monday 11th September. Using the theme 'Bells through the Ages' the church will be transformed through a multitude of floral displays arranged by flower arrangers from both within the church and local voluntary groups, with many of the displays able to be sponsored by local businesses or clubs and Societies.

ROAD CLOSURES

In last month's Lymptstone Herald we gave details of works by SWW to improve the foul sewers in the Village. It looks like this work will start on 1st July.

Devon County Council has made the following orders from Monday 3rd July: 1 No person shall except upon the direction or with permission of a Police Officer in uniform or of a Civil Enforcement Officer cause or permit any vehicle to wait or load and unload at any time on any day on any of the following lengths of road:

Nutwell Road from a point north of its junction with Meeting Lane to the junction with Burgmanns Hill; Burgmanns Hill for its entire length; The Strand from the junction with Burgmanns Hill to a point 15m west of the junction with Chapel Road; Chapel Road from the junction with The Strand to the junction with Underhill; Underhill from the junction with Chapel lane to a point west of the junction with Underhill Crescent.

These temporary restrictions are considered necessary to enable movement of large plant through the Village in conjunction with works to install a new sewage storage tank -
2 No person shall cause or permit any vehicle to proceed at a speed greater than 30 miles per hour on Meeting Lane from the junction with Glebelands to the junction with Strawberry Hill.

This temporary restriction is considered necessary to enable speed restriction and occasional use of STOP / GO to manage lorries turning and site entrance traffic

WANT TO DO SOMETHING FOR OUR LOVELY VILLAGE?

The Lympstone Herald, after forty years of being delivered for FREE to every house in the village, is well established as an intrinsic part of village life. During the fifteen years I have been Editor it has grown from one double page to an average of twenty four pages per month. Covering subjects as varied as the Queen's Birthday celebrations to invitations to a cream tea it has something of interest for everyone.

The forty strong team that produce the Herald has varied very little during this time, all being volunteers and receiving no direct reward other than many thanks from everyone.

Half the Herald is advertising which, according to our regular advertisers, is very successful. The revenue from this provides the money to pay for the cost of printing – about £300 per month. The other half is from about thirty contributors who email me their copy and keep our readers entertained with news and views and notice of future events.

To keep this very successful magazine going we need a new editor. Old age is taking its toll and both my fingers and my brain are slowing up. What we need is a person (or group) who, with a little help from our Deputy

Editor, Terri Scott, can collate what is sent in by contributors and advertisers and change it to our standard format, add it to the adverts and email it all to our very helpful printers in a couple of days each month.

That is it. Very simple and there is very little else to do. You just need to be familiar with Word and accustomed to using email. The printers deliver the completed copies to our distributors, the Telfers, who bundle up the copies and pass them to those who drop them off at individual houses. Liz Griffiths chases up the advertisers for money which the Editor passes on to the Parish Clerk.

Very simply, the whole thing works like clockwork and everyone is willing to help a new editor. I will even show you the quick editing routines that make the job easy.

Chris Carter

MORE ON THE HERALD

When the previous editor of our Lympstone Herald retired some 15 years ago, Chris Carter took up the reins and has successfully produced the magazine monthly ever since (even whilst battling through some ill health and a major operation). Then started the village website. Under Chris's wing our Herald has developed not only by using technology to facilitate layout and print, but has also been enhanced and made larger. The whole village owes Chris grateful thanks for all he has done - he will be a hard act to follow! Chris is also supported by a great team who assist in editing advertising and distribution. In recognition for what they all do, the Parish Council would like to host an informal gathering of all those involved in The Herald and would also like to invite anyone who thinks they may be interested in becoming involved in its future or just wants to find out a little more (however minor they wish this commitment to be - remember that many hands make light work and an editorial team would benefit from just an hour or two a month of someone's time). The council would be very interested to gain views from those already involved in the paper as to how they think it should progress, but also would like to have input from any villager who has something to contribute.

This gathering will be in The Globe at 7.00pm on Thursday 22nd June. A drink and light nibbles will be provided.

LYMPSTONE CRICKETERS CONTRIVE A LOSS

Before Lymptstone's game on 25th May there was a jolly presentation to Olly Creighton of a special cap marking his 100th appearance since the club reformed in 2007. As well as his all round contribution on the field with bat and ball, Olly has held the club together for years: organising the fixture list, looking after the club gear and opening up the ground up for home matches.

Sadly, the match that followed the presentation wasn't Olly's finest, nor Lymptstone's! Having lost the toss, Lymptstone then lost both openers cheaply and on a difficult batting wicket struggled to 81 all out. That started to look a good score when Boatright and Carr reduced the opposition to 6 for 4 after two overs apiece. A village captain's dilemma: keep these bowlers on, skittle the visitors for less than twenty and head for the Globe with the sun still in the sky, or make a game of it (and keep the fixture for next season)? The bowling was changed, the batters took full advantage, scoring a quarter of the runs they needed in a single over, and Lymptstone limped to defeat by five wickets – the first loss in fifteen games. Will they be so kind to School at the Annual Cricket Match on June 15th? Come along and find out!

ART EXHIBITION

The Lympstone Art Group held a very successful Exhibition with over 100 exhibits and nearly 500 visitors over the half term week. The judge, Keith Stott of the South West Academy praised the standard of art work and the quality of presentation. There was a wide range of work, painting pastels, ceramics and beautiful wooden platters. The Alison Leadley-Brown Trophy, for the best exhibit overall went to Louise Banks for her painting, "Low Tide" and Highly Commended Awards went to Sarah Lee Fox for her encaustic painting "Hidden Depths", and Jenny Moon for her fabric and embroidery collage, "Devon Springtime".

The Pat Ferguson Award for best abstract went to Mai Targett for her Painting "Red and Turquoise".

The winner of the Norman de La Rue Trophy was Sheila Stone for her etching, "Lympstone, Past and Present" with Highly Commended Awards going to Ian Goult for his Ipad Painting "Lympstone Parish Church" and to Jenny de la Haye, for her painting, "The Last of Darlings Rock". The Award for the best 3D Exhibit went to Anne Crisp for her ceramic sculpture, "Black Woman's Head" and Highly commended going to Angie Harlock Wilkinson for her ceramic relief tile of "Woman in a Tin Bath" and Rob Longhurst for his "Wooden Bowl".

The Exhibit voted as Favourite was Ernest Ager's picture, "Last Light on Exe Estuary"; the raffle winner for the Picture in coloured pencils of Puffins by Linda Hampson was Mrs King and the winner of the secret bid for Phil Creek's painting in acrylics of the "Compass Rose" was Sue Ingham.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the Exhibition, all our helpers, the artists, the buyers and the visitors who made it such a successful and enjoyable exhibition.

RABBITS ON ALLOTMENTS

Rabbits live on adjacent sites to my allotment. Yesterday I filled in a hole being made between my allotment and an adjoining site (NB NOT the embankment or road). Fortunately the digger was thwarted by the bottom of a metal sheet. Currently I have a number of seedlings which are almost irreplaceable at this time of the year and would tempt any rabbit.

I have spent time and money on fencing and taken advice on possible extensions to my defences but if rabbits do break through my defences then I fear that I will be tempted to use more active methods save my plants.

TODAY'S NEWS: A ROARING SUCCESS.

The Dante Quartet, playwright Clare Norburn and actor David Timson take their bows with flowers prepared by Carol Major at the end of their six concerts

Lympstone became an item on Radio 4's Today programme the other morning, in a five minute broadcast about the series of Beethoven Quartets organised by Lympstone Entertainments in May and June.

The six concerts given by the Dante Quartet over two weekends, when they played all of Beethoven's string quartets, were accompanied by actor David Timson as Beethoven himself, talking about his life, his deafness and his composing in a script written by playwright Clare Norburn. It was the actor and the playwright who were interviewed on the BBC's flagship morning programme, when they explained this new combination of concert and play which had its first outing in Lympstone Church, supported by an Arts Council grant.

The concerts were enjoyed by a total audience of over 1,000, who thrilled to the "absolutely intoxicating" playing of the Dante Quartet. At the end of the famous Grosse Fugue, there was a roar from the audience, a sound rarely heard in string quartet concerts.

"This was a unique artistic adventure for those of us privileged to have attended," wrote Roger Hendy, Chairman of Devon Performing Arts Festival. "It will be remembered for many years. Bravo Lympstone!"

RUGBY STARS TO PLAY IN ANNUAL CRICKET MATCH

Matt Jess

Tom Johnson

Two Exeter Chiefs players, Tom Johnson and Matt Jess, who both live in Lymington, are to play in the Annual Friends of the Church Cricket Match on Thursday, 15th June, starting at 6pm. Lymington versus Harefield is fought out on the beautiful pitch at St Peter's School.

Tom Johnson, a flanker, joined the Chiefs in 2007, and was first selected for England in 2011, the first of eight international appearances. After being a member of the Chiefs squad that has just become the Premiership Champions, Tom is now retiring from rugby to take up a new career. Already he has started working with a number of clients as a personal trainer, whilst it will not be too long before he takes on a new and exclusive PT role at Lymington Manor.

Winger Matt Jess, who grew up in Cornwall, joined Exeter in 2008, and is one of the club's most experienced players. He has missed most of this championship-winning season after he underwent surgery on a toe injury, which ruled the 32-year-old out for four months. He expects to be fit for the cricket match, however!

The Annual Cricket Match is a festive occasion, with a brass band, a bar, a barbecue, a raffle and a sweepstake. All proceeds help to maintain the fabric of the church, Lymington's oldest and finest building – the tower was built more than 600 years ago.

FRIENDS OF UNDERHILL SURGERY- TREASURER

After 12 years as Treasurer with the FUS Michael Wilkes is retiring. At the May AGM he was thanked by our Chairwoman, Norma Exelby, for being a dedicated colleague and his careful attention to detail as Treasurer. We all shall miss him. This now leaves an opening for the position of Treasurer which must be filled as soon as possible if we are to continue the valuable service to the clients of Underhill Surgery. We are a volunteer group who organise transport for those clients who live in Lypstone to Underhill Surgery, Exmouth Hospital and the RD &E. The new Treasurer need not be registered with Underhill Surgery to serve on the Committee. If you are interested please contact Norma Exelby: telephone 266116, email norma.exelby@sky.com.

The programme will be similar to last year and we will publish details, including road closures, in next month's Herald. Looking forward to seeing you all at our cream tea event at "Four Winds" on Sunday 25th June, opens at 1430hrs.

LYMPSTONE HISTORY SOCIETY

At our AGM in May, Gary McNulty was re-elected to the chair for a further term.

Our talk from Angela Coles was all about irons, and she brought some fascinating items from her collection to show us. There were flat irons, gas irons and early electric irons and we learnt about the history of the humble iron through her illustrated talk.

June's event is on the morning of Saturday 24th June when Charlotte Coles will exhibit and talk about archaeological finds from excavations on land close to Lympstone Church. This talk is open to all, and is free to children (yr 5 and yr 6 children can attend unaccompanied). 10am-12.15 at the Methodist Hall.

GARDENS OPEN FOR HOSPISCARE

One of the highlights of Lympstone Open Gardens this summer will be the scarecrows dotted around the village. Entrance to the scarecrow competition is free, and there's a special 'Scarecrow Making Drop-in' on Saturday 24 June between 9.30-1pm in the nursery, opposite the church. Here you can pick up early ideas and tips for making your own scarecrow, collect a free bag of straw for stuffing and also get an entry form. It should be fun!

Open Gardens

Over the Open Gardens weekend of 15-16 July, more than 10 gardens can be explored each day, plus the allotments on the Saturday only – and it's all in aid of Hospiscare Exmouth & Lympstone to mark their 30th anniversary. Tickets and a map will be available at the clearly signposted gardens – adult weekend tickets £6 each, with children free. With the map you can follow the 'open gardens trail' through the village, and find out which gardens are doing morning coffees, lunches, afternoon tea and homemade cakes, and plant sales. Ice creams will be on sale – also marked on the map – and there's a raffle with great prizes. Jason has kindly offered to do fish & chips from his Fish Shed from 4.30 – approx 8pm on the Saturday – with a donation to Hospiscare.

As we all know, parking is limited in the village, so people are being encouraged to come by public transport. That weekend the nursery site and the National Trust Avenue Field on Bergmann's Hill will be opened up for cars too. Sorry, but no dogs in gardens except assistance dogs. ## LYPS – (LYMPSTONE YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY

Approximately one quarter of our village is under 18 – we are fortunate to have many village youth activities run by volunteers, but there is one outstanding facility which has been running weekly for 12 years, week in and week out. This is our Youth Club (LYPS). For the last 7 years we have been blessed to have Eddie Mingo and his daughter Lauren at the helm. Despite both being in full-time work, they have each provided thousands of hours of their own time to run this club and hundreds of our village children have benefited.

Having held the helm for a sterling seven-year stint of community volunteering, Eddie and Lauren wish to hand over to the reins to a new person or team.

The Parish Council is keen to ensure that the club can continue and will be meeting on Monday 19th June at 7.30pm at The Club Hut on Candys Field to discuss options for the future, both for our thriving junior club and also to examine ways in which to modernise the building meet ever changing standards and new technology. All current members (aged 6-18) will be especially welcome to come along and share their views.

The club can only continue with volunteer support, even if a paid leader is appointed. The law dictates that we have to have a certain number of adults to members. (Di Beatty, Pat Squires and Cllr Pete Acca have been on the committee recently). If anyone feels they can help, please come along to the meeting or contact me. If your children have benefitted from the club, or you were a member years ago, please consider giving maybe just a couple of hours a month to maintain this great facility for our village.

LYMPSTONE WI

At the meeting on 7th June, the use of a microphone improved the acoustic in the Methodist Hall.

Our speaker was Mr Michael Henderson, a journalist and author of See You after the Duration, who gave an account of being evacuated to USA in 1940 at the age of 8. He and his younger brother feel deep gratitude towards their American host family and despite being away for 5 years look back at their 'adventure' with fondness, although adopting the American culture was a challenge with language, dress and manners. He described the mixed emotions of being sent away including the parents' guilt putting children's lives at risk on the Atlantic Ocean. Michael described the return journey which took 2 weeks and the re establishing of family life. He acknowledged that all evacuation experiences were not as fulfilling as his own.

Heather Stratford, our President, thanked Lindy Newton for preparing an attractive programme for the coming year.

A group enjoyed a visit to Burrow Farm Gardens and a visit to Cothelstone Manner is imminent.

The WI will enter a scarecrow in the competition to run alongside Open Gardens; there will be a scarecrow building 'Drop In' at Lympstone Nursery on 24th June 9.30-1.00pm.

Litter picking is a regular fixture, now limited to Station Hill and Candy's Field.

Ladies were asked to sign up for the Summer Supper on 25th July and to pledge help for the Furry Dance catering (5th August) and Flower Festival (8-11th September). Our next meeting will be Wednesday 5th July when Penelope Townsend will speak about Jane Austen in the West Country.

Anyone who may be interested in Lympstone WI will always be welcomed. For more information find us on the village website or come along to one of our meetings on the first Wednesday of the month at the Methodist Hall.
