PARISH COUNCIL

Lympstone Pre-school A planning application has now been submitted to EDDC. All the details will be posted on the EDDC planning search page once the application has been validated. The Parish Council will hold an extra meeting to consider this application and works to the Youth Club at 7.30pm on Monday 17th July 2017 in the Committee Room (the other rooms are in use so it may be a bit of a squeeze, but please come along). Details will be posted on the website and the notice boards as usual as soon as they are available.

Hedges in the parish are overgrown and are becoming a nuisance in some places. Roger Stewart told the Parish Council that DCC are no longer accepting their responsibility to cut hedges along the highway nor to clear vegetation from around road signs. They are leaving this to landowners but they do not appear to have told landowners. If you have a hedge that fronts on to a footpath or road, please make sure that it is trimmed so that it does not cause an obstruction or nuisance. (Garden/road hedges should now be cut - nests are empty by this time. Ed)

Seats and benches are being painted again this year by our volunteer, Chris Masterson, after a year's break. He has also repainted the cemetery gates. The Parish Council only pays for materials. Please look out for the 'Wet Paint' signs and if you see him working please give him a friendly word of thanks. The Parish Council is very grateful for the effort he puts in.

Channel 4 visited Lymptstone to start filming for their Village of the Year competition. They have been twice so far and will be back to film the Furry Dance. 14 Groups took part in the first filming. Not everyone in the village supports an entry into this competition but the visit by Channel 4 was seen as a way of celebrating the excellent work that all volunteers do in the Village to keep the village a vibrant community and a great place to live. Whoever you are and whatever you do, there is always some contribution that you can make to life in the Village.

Riparian owners along the Wotton brook have received a letter from the Parish Council regarding their responsibility to maintain the banks and bed of the Brook. Dave Tyrrell spoke at length about this at the Parish Council meeting. Cllr Phil Corcos has been working closely with DCC Flood Resilience team and the Environment Agency to help improve the levels of protection for those at risk. This letter is part of that work. Phil will be happy to help you and advise on your responsibilities; he can seek advice from the Environment Agency or DCC if needed.

A new Editor and support Team is still needed for the Lymptstone Herald. Parish Council Chairman, Jenny Clark has been approached by four people who are willing to be involved. It is important that the work is shared so that all eventualities can be covered. If you feel that you would like to lend a hand please let Jenny know (merryfield@etcpm.com) This could be helping to write articles, seeking advertising (which pays for printing costs) laying out the magazine on a PC ready for printing or helping to deliver. All this is needed so the Lymptstone Herald continues to be the main ‘messenger’ for residents.

The Parish Council is looking for A new Youth Leader for the Youth Club in Candy’s Field who will be supported by a small Group of volunteers and building ‘manager’ to look after and help develop the building. There has been a Youth Club in Lymptstone for over 40 years. Leaders and members come and go and we are grateful for the time and effort they have put in to help young people of the Parish grow into well-rounded individuals. The present building has been there for nearly forty years, it has always been run by volunteers with the involvement of families. Today is no different and new people are needed to take over from Eddie and Lauren Mingo who have done a great job over the last seven years. The Youth Club has developed considerably during this time with lots of new equipment and activities.

Youth Club sessions are currently held every Friday evening and there are other activities in the building during the week. The Youth Club is also involved in other community activities held on Candy's Field. The new Leader will have every opportunity to take the Youth Club in new and different directions.

Underhill car park will be closed in part for Balfour Beatty to carry out major works on behalf of SWW. The car park will be available for the forthcoming production of 'Measure for Measure' by Cygnet Theatre on Saturday 15th July 2017. It is likely, but not certain that the works will start by the end of July. There will be some disruption during the works especially to allow the delivery of large items, so please be patient. Alternative car parking is being provided on the field at the top of Underhill Close. As you know, it is quite a steep walk so the Parish Council asks that if you are able to walk to this field then do not park in the few spaces that will remain in the current car park leaving these free for those who are not able to tackle the hill.

A map of amenities in the Village has been suggested and the Parish Council would like to follow this up. When visiting other villages dotted around the country for the first time we often find these a great help. Lymstone Church and Village Hall are just two examples of not being in the "village centre", whenever there is a wedding in the church we see' make shift' direction signs erected so that attendees from outside know where to go. This is not a criticism of the use of signage just one example of where a central map would be useful. It is not to encourage "tourists" to the village but it would save a great deal of frustration to a bona-fide visitor by showing the way to some of our landmarks. There are basic street maps of the village but the Parish Council feels that these could be improved by artistic information about the Parish, in a similar way to the Millennium map that was produced so long ago! The Parish Council would welcome interest from anyone with artistic skills and ideas to develop this map. Please contact any Parish Councillor with your ideas.

Road safety in the Parish is becoming an issue again and it is not just cyclists who are posing dangers to others.

The issue with the Exe Estuary Trail and cyclists in the village may have been distracting from the much broader issue of safety on the roads in and around the village and the attitude of all road users. Parish Councillor Rob Hilton has received some fairly astonishing attitudes from drivers and pedestrians in the village recently and a few examples are:

"My Dad collected our children from school a couple of months ago and whilst walking home along a section of road with no pavement he moved to the side to let a car pass and the car ran over his foot, my Dad opened the passenger side door and said “excuse me you just ran over my foot” to which he received the reply “well it is a road mate!”

“I was cycling on the estuary trail in extreme wind and rain a few weeks ago when I carefully passed a lady walking her dog not on a lead and around 20 metres further up the path from her. She was carrying an umbrella and had her hood up so couldn’t see or supervise the dog. As I tried to pass the dog it suddenly ran into the path in front of me and I just managed to stop in time not to run it over. I was not travelling fast as it wasn’t possible to due to the strong head wind. I stopped and suggested to the lady that it might be sensible to have the dog on a lead given the conditions and that this is a shared path and this is what the Highway Code advises for shared paths to which I received a barrage of abuse about cyclists going too fast and not being careful enough.”

“My wife was walking three children to school starting from our house on Wotton Lane which is always challenging but I hope we would all agree is preferable to driving to the school and adding to traffic problems. Passing stationary cars at the traffic lights one of the children slipped. A driver then wound down her window and shouted a lot of abuse at my wife including “I hope you think twice about walking your children down this road now it’s completely irresponsible!” the children were obviously quite upset.”

These are three examples are very personal but they are actually fairly typical of the experiences and attitudes that are becoming increasingly common. Many residents avoid using the car whenever possible as this is a responsible choice in a village with narrow roads and few pavements and it is an important part of educating our children about choices that can affect their health and lifestyles as well as the environment. It would of course be much easier to just get in the car but this shouldn’t always be the first choice

The Parish Council hopes that all residents will make an effort to address this and that this might in turn help to mitigate the issues encountered with the Exe Estuary Trail. In the meantime residents could all start to think how they can make our village feel like a safe place for all road users. There are ‘peak’ times for road traffic and if you drive through the village at these times, please do think whether you really need to drive and if you do please leave extra time so that you can drive slowly and carefully.

Annual 'Ride and Stride' - Saturday 9th September. This year the annual 'Ride & Stride' event shares the weekend with the Flower Festival in the Church – so two excellent events to enjoy on the same day! The 'Ride & Stride' event is a walk or cycle ride around the countryside to visit local churches – for as short or as long a distance as you prefer. Maps will be available in the Parish Church so that you can define your preferred route around Exmouth, Budleigh Salterton or Topsham and most churches have refreshments available to welcome the travellers! As well as enjoying a day out in our beautiful countryside, an objective is to raise money for the preservation of church buildings throughout Devon by persuading family and friends to provide some sponsorship – no matter how small. This is an enjoyable day out for families of all ages whilst hopefully enjoying an Indian Summer - combined with as much, or as little, exercises as you choose! Contact Basil Strickland on 266935 or Basil.Strickland@gmail.com if you want more information in the meantime.

FROM THE EX EDITOR

I can now say a sad goodbye to all our readers. Jenny Clark has promised me that she has found a successor so I will leave the fate of the Herald in her hands.

Our contributors and sub editors, of which there have been just four over fifteen years, have had a (mainly) good time. A few articles have been rejected by me – usually because we did not have space or they were unsuitable or because of technical difficulties but most contributors were understanding or learnt too late that email is not very tolerant.

With an average of about thirty articles and forty adverts per month in one hundred and sixty plus issues we have worked hard to get issues out at the rate of eleven per annum and all have appeared on the expected date. Hopefully those contributors who did not understand what a deadline is have now understood that I had to meet our printer's and deliverers' own deadlines as well as obeying the rules of data protection.

Now I should say a big thank-you to all those who submitted copy, our printers for producing our Herald to a regular schedule and to all those who distributed each issue around the village after they had been bundled up and carried around Lymptone in car by firstly the Newtons and latterly the Telfers.

I edited our Herald at home, on various boats and in locations as varied as varied as Eastern Australia and islands of Greece – admittedly with help from our subeditors and those who chased the money (including our various Parish Clerks). Microsoft supplied the word processing software Word (Publisher was tried and found too unreliable) and spreadsheets for the advert accounts and BT most of the transmission software. (After many years of using various brands of these I would not recommend either Microsoft or BT to those who want to sleep soundly at night). Simpler software and satellite communications might be more reliable. So it's up to my successor to choose their method of putting the Herald together. I promise to help/train/introduce or do whatever I can to make their life easier. Good luck!

FOXES

I, like most people, tolerate the foxes which prowl our village at night, scavenging from our bins, making a great noise when they turn them over and nosing through the contents. They are an urban pest, fun to watch about dawn in Candys Field when the young gamble like lambs, which people tolerate with barely a thought. But last night about ten o'clock when I was returning home, I was accosted by an old friend, female, disabled and well retired and out walking her constant companion, a little dog. After the usual greeting she proceeded to tell me of her, very different view of these cute pests. In essence she views them as disease ridden, mangy pests who can pass their diseases on to people. They have little or no fear of man and are the cause of a lot of disquiet. She told me how many people actually encourage them by leaving food out for them on a regular basis and feared their proliferation. Recently she had one casually brush past her. I promised to tell you about her fears and ask you not to feed them.

Since then I have spoken to a couple of people who both agreed that we have too many of them and that they should be "controlled". Do you think that the proper authorities should be invited in?

GARDEN CLUB VISIT TO BARRINGTON COURT

The Garden Club coach trip this year took place on a most beautiful summer's day, when temperatures eventually tipped into the low 30s. Our destination was Barrington Court in Somerset, an empty but restored Tudor manor house with farm buildings, gardens and orchards.

The house was gifted to the National Trust in 1907 but then it remained in a virtually derelict condition through lack of funds. In 1915 a Colonel Lyle (of Tate and Lyle fame) and his wife were excited by the prospect of restoration and they took out a 99 year repairing lease from the Trust, starting work in 1921. Gertrude Jekyll was influential in planning the layout of the gardens and planting schemes.

Having enjoyed the wonderful gardens, and a delicious lunch, some of us joined a guided tour of the house, which certainly brought its history to life. We were particularly interested to hear about the BBC's visit to film various scenes of Wolf Hall. We could easily see why it was such an appropriate location.

I'm sure everyone on the coach would want to join me in passing on thanks to the Garden Club for organising such an enjoyable and interesting trip.

GJ ROSE

A THRILLING FINISH

The Annual Cricket Match, in aid of Friends of the Church, raised a record-breaking £750 this year.

The sun shone for a change, and a large crowd, partly drawn by guest players from Exeter Chiefs, enjoyed the Lypstone Training Band, a bar and a barbecue in the beautiful setting of St Peter's. It was also a thrilling game of cricket.

The Village team, having won the toss, cruised to a comfortable 65 before a wicket fell in the ninth over, to School's guest bowler in the form of Exeter Chiefs' flanker Tom Johnson. (Each side had been given a rugby star to play with for the occasion, Matt Jess guesting for Lypstone). With only one other wicket falling, Lypstone's total of 165 for 2 from their 20 overs looked fairly winnable.

School's reply stuttered from prolific to pedestrian, depending largely on who was bowling. John Carr opened with three overs for only four runs, whilst several others got carted hither and thither, including four sixes in four balls over the bowler's head and into the farmer's field beyond.

The outcome of all this mayhem was that at the start of the final over School needed but six to win! Carr stepped up to bowl it, conceding just one run off the first three balls. Village hopes rose, but sank when the fourth ball flew over his head towards the farmer's field. They soared again when it dropped towards the safe hands of Abrahams Junior just inside the boundary, but were finally dashed when it pushed young Ben into the fence – to be adjudged six runs and victory for School by 3 wickets.

There was a time when a tied outcome was assumed in advance, and the only cricket interest was how this would be achieved. No amount of preplanning could have contrived as cracking a finish as this to such a very good game of cricket.

FURRY DANCE NEWS

Thank you to our supporters and helpers for making our recent cream tea event a great success. Also a special thanks to Lymptone Training Band for their excellent performance and to Dave and Jan Kirby for the generous donation of a Lymptone map which we auctioned....what a great result !!

As Furry Dance day draws nearer, Sat 5th August, we need to remind you of the road closures for that day. 0930hrs road closed between Plush hairdressers and Chapel Road to set up the Pannier Market. 1400hrs, road closed from the Saddlers Arms to Highcliffe, no access to Underhill car park. Remember there is alternative parking at Avenue Field, entrance from Bergmanns Hill. 1800hrs, road closures end.

Requests for Pannier Market pitches should be made to Pauline Stewart as soon as possible phone 01395 263097 or email hollywell@hotmail.co.uk Brush down your dog, prepare your fancy dress (why not resurrect your children's book day costumes) and keep your fingers crossed for fine weather.

LYMPSTONE OPEN GARDENS

With a great deal of support and enthusiasm, the Open Gardens weekend of 15-16 July is finally here. More than 10 village gardens can be explored each day, plus the allotments on the Saturday only – and it's all in aid of Hospiscare Exmouth & Lymptone to mark their 30th anniversary. Tickets and a map will be available at the clearly signposted gardens – adult weekend tickets £6 each, with children free. With the map you can follow the 'open gardens trail' through the village, and find out which gardens are doing morning coffees, lunches, afternoon tea and homemade cakes, and plant sales. Ice creams will be on sale – also marked on the map – and there's a raffle with great prizes.

As we all know, parking is limited in the village, so people are being encouraged to come by public transport. That weekend the nursery site and the National Trust Avenue

Field on Burgmanns Hill will be opened up for cars too. Sorry, but no dogs in gardens except assistance dogs. For further information visit www.lympstone.org or email: lindalyonclark@aol.com

We're very much looking forward to receiving your Show entries on the evening of Friday 18 August from 6 – 8pm, or on the morning of Saturday 19 August from 8 – 10am.

year, there's also a leaflet calling for entries from under 16s – distributed via the school, and also to be found in the village shop.

As usual, we'd be very pleased to receive any donations of cakes or produce to sell on the day. To add to the event, the Village Training Band will be playing so do come and spend the afternoon with us – it's always a lovely event.

Over the summer also look out for our new leaflet outlining next season's talks and events. THE AUDIENCE FOR LAST YEAR'S SHAKESPEARE IN THE TELFERS'S GARDEN

Claudio is condemned to death, for having pre-marital sex with his girl friend, a crime in Duke Angelo's Vienna. If you wish to save your brother's life, then sleep with me, says Angelo to the virtuous nun, Isabella: "You must lay down the treasures of your body."

Isabella's dilemma is at the heart of Measure for Measure, Shakespeare's dark comedy of lust and power, which Cygnet Theatre Company are performing in the tree-lined garden of Ellenthorpe on Saturday, 15th July.

The Cygnet's garden productions are now a regular and much-enjoyed part of Lymptstone's summers. The talented students of this long-established Exeter drama school, directed by their principal, Alistair Ganley, will perform their latest show in the village, and demonstrate that "man, proud man, dressed in a little brief authority," will behave in a way "to make the angels weep."

Bring a picnic and a chair at 5pm, and the play will start at 6pm. Tickets £10 (family ticket £30, under 18/NUS £5) from Demelza, at 2 Brookfield Cottages (272243, or email lympentsboxoffice@gmail.com)

LYMPSTONE WI

The regular monthly meeting took place on Wednesday July 5th. Heather Stratford welcomed everyone including guests and reminded the assembled group that further volunteers were needed to help at the Furry Dance (5th August) and the Church Flower Festival (8th- 11th September).

2018 WI calendars and diaries are now available

Ladies were treated to an illustrated talk and quotations by Penelope Townsend, appropriately dressed in an empire line muslin gown, entitled Jane Austen Stepping Westward. The Austen family, while living in Bath, holidayed in Regency Devon and Dorset; they had a special affection for Dawlish before the railway. Penelope explained a number of connections with West Country locations embraced in Austen novels. The Area delegate from Magnolia WI kindly gave a report on the WI National Annual Meeting in Liverpool in June. One of the interesting points was that the WI membership count is on the increase.

Our president Heather Stratford pointed out that unfortunately a solution to the parking problem for our members during the work in the car park has not been found yet.

Possible interesting outings for the autumn were put forward and discussed. One of them could be a visit to the Royal Mail sorting office. Members were also invited to put their name down for the DFWI Autumn Showcase on Tuesday 26 September.

The previous visit to Cottlestone Manor was generally described as 'brilliant' and 'best ever', so there is no doubt that that outing was a great success. Diana de la Rue was thanked for the organisation of this event.

More ladies had come forward to help with the furry dance catering and the flower festival in September. There was an additional request from Suki Commin to provide some cakes to sell during the open garden days in July (15th and 16th).

Everybody was reminded that traditionally there is no meeting in August. The next meeting will be held on the 6th of September. The speaker will be Raymond Budd and the intriguing subject will be 'Reminiscences of a Black and White Minstrel'.

For more information about joining our WI you can look on the village website or you will be made very welcome at our meetings on the first Wednesday of the month at the Methodist Hall.
