

Lympstone History Society

Programme of events 2018

Our Thursday talks are held in the Methodist Hall, Chapel Road (unless otherwise stated).
Easy access from the train station and from the village car park (Underhill)
Doors open at 7.00pm, talks start promptly at 7.30pm.

Thursday 22nd February	The History of Clay Pipes Charlotte Coles
Thursday 22nd March	The Cathedral Green Fire & Exeter's Ancient Buildings Todd Gray
Thursday 19th April	Anglo-Saxon Mints in Devon John Allan
Thursday 24th May	AGM and TALK: 'Our Great Elizabethan' (Raleigh) Michael Downes
Thursday 20th September	From village to Newfoundland 1590: the story of a Devon boy. Jenny Moon
Thursday 25th October	Archaeological Aerial Surveys with the LIDAL Survey Bill Horner
Thursday 22nd November	Miscellany of little known facts about Devon churches Martin Horrall
Thursday 13th December	The Restoration of Woodbury Castle Kim Strawbridge

Entry fee includes refreshments. Everyone welcome!