

THE LYPMPSTONE HERALD

A SPEEDY DELIVERY IN LYPMPSTONE

A very speedy delivery was made in the village in the early hours of 19th June. On her way to the maternity hospital, a mother unexpectedly delivered her baby at 3am at the junction of Longmeadow Road and Maltfield. A group of wonderful neighbours assisted until Mum and baby were collected by ambulance. After a quick check-up all was found to be well and baby Daisy Mae weighed in at a healthy 8lb 12oz. Congratulations to parents Jade and Robbie and big sister Lilly aged 4. Heartfelt thanks to the kind and amazing people who came to help (especially Emily Hawes who was first on the scene), and the two police officers and the paramedic who arrived after the baby!

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

Public Session - During the open session there was a presentation of landscaping the open space and village green at the Lymptone Nurseries site from Mr Ed Harbottle of Harrisbugg Landscaping Design. Mr Harbottle carefully and precisely discussed with the members of Lymptone Parish Council and the public the proposed design and layout. He discussed the use of different natural materials, shrubs, plants and trees to promote the shared space. There were plenty of pictures and designs to illustrate his ideas. The rural area would include:

- Community orchard
- Natural play, adventure and exploration
- Meadow grasses
- Attenuation pond.

Mr Harbottle explained how the natural play would be a beneficial part of the rural park. He had noted that already, in the village there was already a site for formal play. Therefore, here would be an opportunity, for a more rural landscape for natural play features for the use of different age groups.

It was a very interesting session and really good to hear all the views and beliefs from across the Parish.

Minutes - The minutes of last month's meeting were confirmed with only one amendment made by the Chairman, but not a bad effort for the new Clerks second attempt. On that note, may I introduce myself to you, the Parishioners of Lymptone. My name is Lucy Tyrrell and I have grown up in the village, I have always worked in the village, from the paper shop to the local public houses – many of you would probably remember me first as your paper girl, I had rounds all over the village! I am very excited with the prospect of this new role and hope that I can respond appropriately to any queries quickly and effectively. I look forward to hearing from you!

Flood Risk Management – Councillor Miss Dimond gave an update regarding the Lymptone Flood Resilience Group (LFRG). Full details of the progress of the group can be found on page 12 and 13.

Casual Vacancy – There is still a casual vacancy on the Parish Council. It has been advertised in the Parish notice boards but please contact the Chairman Mrs Jenny Clark or Lucy Tyrrell, Clerk to the Council if you are interested in joining the Parish Council and finding out more about the role of a Parish Councillor.

Chairman's Report – The Chairman discussed the remembrance of commemorating 100 years of the end of WWI. She explained that we had permission granted to light the Beacon on Cliff Field. As November 11th 2018 falls on a Sunday, the Chairman was keen to see a Parish community celebration take place. The Chairman is brimming with enthusiasm and needs your help, the Parishioners of our Village we need your ideas and thoughts to bring this momentous occasion to the forefront of all, young and old! Therefore the Chairman has proposed a meeting for anyone who wishes to share ideas and help to organise such an event, please come to the Village Hall committee room on the 16th July at 7pm.

County Councillors Reports – Councillor Trail informed the Parish Council that sadly he had to issue two notices to businesses in the village to remove their outside seating from the highway due to a local resident complaint. Councillor Montgomery asked what could be done about speeding cyclists through the village and Councillor Trail explained that it needed to be reported to the police not highways.

District Councillors Reports – Councillor Ingham thanked the people who came to the revised drainage scheme application at EDDC last month. He congratulated them on how articulate they were, how clear their evidence and proof was delivered both in speaking and writing. The decision made was profound to our Parish and allowed an opening to move forward. A special thank you was given by Councillor Ingham to Mr and Mrs Davis from LFRG for their detailed report and to Councillor Atkins and Mr Tyrrell for their clear presentations. All these magnificent efforts managed to stop the revised drainage strategy from being approved.

Reports of Lead Councillors – Councillor Mrs Rogers reported to the Council that at the top end of Glebelands and Hunton Close there have been no street lights. DCC have been out and inspected the lights, however, it is not the lights that are broken but a failure with the power source. Western Power are coming out to look at the electricity distribution to the lights and rectify.

Finally, the Chairman read out correspondence in regards to a thank you letter received to the Parish Council from the WI for the loan of the Parish Councils overhead projector, which was very kind of them to write. The Chairman also thanked Mrs Day for noticing the water butt at the station was empty and quickly resolved the problems with attentive members of the village.

FURRY DANCE NEWS

It was wonderful to welcome so many to our cream teas. Thank you to both regulars and new faces for your support on such a busy weekend for Lymptone. Once again an excellent performance was given by Roger Riggs and the training band who never fail to impress us with their varied and most enjoyable programme. A generous supporter donated a framed Parish Map for us to auction enabling us to end the afternoon on a high note. Thanks to all for making the event such a success..

As Furry Dance day draws nearer, Sat 4th August, we need to remind you of the road closures for that day. 09:30hrs road closed between the hairdressers and Chapel Road to set up the Pannier Market. 14:00hrs road closed from the Saddlers Arms to Highcliffe, no access to Underhill car park. Remember there is alternative parking at Avenue Field, entrance from Bergmanns Hill. 18:00hrs road closures end.

This year's format is similar to last year with all the usual events. However due to tidal restrictions on the Boat Shelter slipway, the dog show will be held on the Cliff Field, above the harbour at 11:30hrs. Watch out for posters advertising the dog classes. The details of all other events will be published in our flyers to be distributed through various village outlets nearer the day. All Pannier Market pitches have now been taken but if you wish to go on the waiting list for cancelled pitches contact Pauline Stewart as soon as possible. Phone 01395 263097 or email hollywell@hotmail.co.uk

Let's hope this current good weather continues and we are blessed with glorious sunshine.

PARISH CHURCH

Produce Stall in Aid of Lympstone Church returns this summer under the railway arch! Every Saturday morning, from 9.30 am to 10.30 am (unless sold out). The first one took place yesterday with a well stocked stall which raised over £190! It will continue until Saturday 1st Sept (but not Furry Dance Day, 4th August!) Please support the stalls by donating produce, cakes, etc. by 9:15 am. Volunteers needed to staff stalls each week as well as supporting the church a good opportunity for socialising!

Choir - We need more singers for the choir!! Singing has been proved to be good for health – both physical and mental – so why not give it a go!!! Choir practice is often a fun time!!

Last Sunday we were a bit thin on the ground with four of our regular singers out of action but happily the dynamic duo of Wendy and John held things together valiantly!!

Our choir was formed in 2009 and led the singing at the Sung Eucharist for the first time on 22nd November, 2009 – the Feast of Christ the King and it was fitting that it was also St Cecilia's Day when many people celebrate the patron saint of musicians.

Whilst we regularly sing music (mostly in unison) by 20th Century composers, such as Bernadette Farrell, Marty Haugen and Stuart Townend, during the distribution of holy communion I would dearly love to be able to re-introduce the singing of 4-part motets from the traditional repertoire as we were able to up to about 3 years ago..... But to do this we need more sopranos as well as altos, tenors and basses. Please give it some thought - by joining the choir you can fulfil the third part of the mission community aims – to serve the people with joy. It need not be too onerous a commitment so please talk to me over a cup of coffee after the service.

Sea Sunday Service - Lympstone Harbour Sunday 8th July at 11:30am. Led by Revd. Geoffrey Wrayford. Music from the Lympstone Training Band. Collection in aid of the R.N.L.I. and the Mission to Seafarers. Refreshments will be served afterwards in the Sailing Club.

Quiet Prayer Time. Come and join our time of quiet and reflective prayer on 9th July from 9:30 to 10:00am. Sessions tend to include a short Bible reading, an extract from a meditative writing or poem, sometimes some music and 15 – 20 minutes of silence; closing with the Lord's Prayer.

Lympstone Unlocked takes places once a month on a Sunday evening in the church from 5 - 6pm. This month it is on the 15th (Fiona Upchurch is leading it).

The service is for youngsters aged roughly between 7 and 11 years old.

There is fun, craft, games and lively worship for the youngsters plus tea and coffee for the parents

Future dates: Family Eucharist in September will be on the second Sunday rather than the first, and is also the Patronal Festival.

Harvest Supper in the Village Hall on October 6th followed by a Barn Dance for as many as well. Live music from an, as yet, unnamed band!

Mission To Seafarers supported by Sea Sunday

The Mission to Seafarers has its roots in the work of Anglican priest, John Ashley who in 1835 was on the shore at Clevedon with his son who asked him how the people on ships in the Bristol Channel could go to church. Recognising the needs of the seafarers on the four hundred sailing vessels in the Bristol Channel, he created the Bristol Channel Mission. He raised funds, and in 1839 a specially designed mission cutter named Eirene was built with a main cabin which could be converted into a chapel for 100 people. His work inspired similar ministries in the UK, and it was decided in 1856 that these groups should be formally organised under the name The Mission to Seamen Afloat, at Home and Abroad.

In 1858, this name was changed to The Missions to Seamen, and the organisation adopted its Flying Angel logo, still in use to this day.

LYMPSTONE ART EXHIBITION 2018

The exhibition was held over the last week of May, and we had a record amount of exhibits: 95 hanging exhibits, 31 3D exhibits and 123 Folio pieces making a total of 249 items and nearly 500 visitors.

We were delighted to have an artist and illustrator who originated from Lymptone as our judge. Paul Barclay now has a gallery in Dartmouth and he opened the Exhibition on Saturday 26th May and announced the winners in the different classes. These were as follows

The Alison Leadley-Brown Trophy, for the best exhibit overall went to Myra Tarbath for her pastel portrait of "A Man from Rajastan". Highly commended awards went to Ernest Ager for his acrylic painting, "Days in the Sun" and John Cowlshaw acrylic painting, "Glorious Devon"

The Pat Ferguson Award for Best Abstract went to Jayne Farleigh for her Mixed Media Painting "The Power of Light (Lymptone Harbour).

The winner of the Norman de La Rue Trophy for the best depiction of a Lymptone scene was Pat Boaden for her charcoal drawing, "Craned Out". Highly Commended Awards were given to Louise Banks for her water colour print "Peter's Tower" and to Carol Kerr for her mixed media picture "Jason's Floats".

The Award for the best 3D Exhibit went to Margot Cornish for her "Birds About a Small Churn" and Highly Commended was given to Jenny Moon for her 3D fabric picture "Evening Cloud" and Rob Longhurst for his "Ash Wood Platter". All winners were presented with a cheque and a signed print of the raffle picture by Paul Barclay.

The Exhibit voted as Favourite was Suki Commin's "Wild Cat"

The Raffle winner for the black line drawing on canvas of Lymptone Harbour, donated by Paul Barclay, was Jenny Clark and the winner of the secret bid for Louise Banks' watercolour of Lymptone Boats was Julie Heptonstall with a bid of £185.

Put the date in your diary for the 2019 Exhibition which will be 26th May to 2nd June. Thank you to all who visited and bought art work, without your support we wouldn't be able to cover the costs of running the exhibition which is a popular village event and known for its high standard of exhibits.

ARMISTICE DAY

The Lympstone Community Hub is keen to plan a community event to mark the centenary of the armistice. We will be lighting a beacon on Cliff Field in the early evening, as part of a national beacon event, and would like to have some entertainment, food and drink available during the afternoon. We would also like to have a large display of poppies through the village. Whilst we have some initial thoughts, we would welcome input from ANYONE in the village who has ideas or wishes to help on the day (however small your involvement may be!) There will be a brief informal meeting on Monday 16th July at 7pm in the committee room of the Village Hall to gather suggestions. All are welcome. If you cannot make the meeting but wish to have an input, please e-mail Linda and Jenny at malcandlinda@aol.com or merryfield@etcpm.com

Because of holidays/family commitments, this monthly report is being written before our actual meeting. We will be welcoming our speaker, Wendy Richards Wood from Hearing Dogs for the Deaf, together with her colleague and his dog.

Members will be told that at the National Federation Annual Meeting in Cardiff the Resolution "Mental Health Matters" asking for parity with physical health was passed with 98% of the vote. Excellent speakers at that meeting were Dame Stella Rimington and Huw Edwards.

We will be providing all day refreshments at Methodist Hall for Furry Dance on 4th August, plus having a Cake Stall in Strand. Together with our usual Ploughman's Lunches, we think our Smoked Salmon with Cream Cheese Bagels are going to be very popular. Look out for our eye catching posters nearer the time!

We are all looking forward to: Summer Supper at Sailing Club next week, Cream Tea with Countess Wear W.I. in August, Stuart Line Cruise 7th September, Visit to Killerton Fashion Exhibition in October. We also have the opportunity to join Devon Federation visits to Buckfast Abbey and Bath.

Hope to see you all at the Furry Dance!

LYMPSTONE GARDEN CLUB

The highlight of Lympstone's gardening year is almost upon us, with the Annual Show on Saturday 18 August in the Village Hall from 2pm.

We're very much looking forward to receiving your show entries on the evening of Friday 17 August from 6 – 8pm, or on the morning of Saturday 18 August from 8 – 10am.

Pick up a Show Schedule from our local shop and pubs, or at our Furry Dance stall on Saturday 4 August. This lists all the classes you can enter, and has an entry form at the back. Entry is just 20p each, and if you have five entries or more you get into the show for free. Details of all entry classes are also on the village website www.lympstone.org. There's a separate booklet calling for entries from under 16s – distributed via the school, and in the village shop. We're committed to promoting gardening to young people, and this year have worked with Lympstone Pre-school, Lympstone Primary and St Peters to encourage them to grow. Children under 5 have grown dwarf sunflowers and 5-11 year olds planted peas – photos will be displayed at the show. Also each school, along with Tick Tock at the Parish Church, has been given a wheelbarrow, compost and plants to create a miniature garden for the show.

As usual, we'd be very pleased to receive any donations of cakes or produce to sell on the day. To add to the event, the Village Training Band will be playing so do come and spend the afternoon with us – it's always a lovely event.

Over the summer also look out for our new leaflet outlining next season's talks and events. News from the Garden Club is sent out regularly by email – if we don't have your details and you'd like to be kept up to date with what's coming up then please send your name and email address to windygardener@yahoo.co.uk

STOP PRESS!

As we are now members of the RHS, we're organizing a club trip to RHS Rosemoor in Torrington on Wed 12 September. Entry will be free, and the only cost is £10 for the coach. Book with Suki on 01395 269989 or email suki.commin@googlemail.com

FLOOD RISK MANAGEMENT

Amid the sunshine, it seems strange to write about flooding. But the work of the Lympstone Flood Resilience Group and Flood Wardens continues come rain or shine!

Project Update:

The Lympstone Flood Risk Management Project is progressing well, and the benefits of working in partnership with the Flood Risk Agencies (Environment Agency, Devon County Council, East Devon County Council, and South West Water) are beginning to be realised. Important recent developments include:

- Start of the Environment Agency's hydraulic modelling study (to help us better understand the flood risk and identify appropriate measures to reduce the risk) - including a start-up meeting and tour of the catchment on 19th June.
- Start of the upper catchment study – our consultant is working with landowners to identify risks and opportunities, and will also be observing runoff from the land during significant rainfall events (all of which will help ground truth the hydraulic model and identify practical ways to reduce the risk of flooding).
- Ongoing work with the Environment Agency to ensure the existing flood defences are effective – including a survey of Wotton Brook around the flood plain to be conducted on 9th and 10th July by the Agency's surveyors, Lewis Brown.
- Organisation of a meeting on planning and development issues related to drainage and flood risk

(to be held with representatives of all of the flood risk agencies in September).

Flood Wardens' Activities:

As we all know, our flood wardens are vital in monitoring potential flood conditions and responding to actual flood events. A very constructive meeting was held on 22nd May to discuss practical opportunities for improvement. Some good suggestions were made such as obtaining gauge boards and other useful tools, and making practical improvements to our organisation, e.g., some wardens adopting a 'patch' of the Wotton Brook to monitor conditions and support local residents. The Environment Agency has offered further training, and work is planned to formalise procedures.

Temporary change of contact details

During the temporary absence of our leader, Phil Corcos, our contact details have changed (until Phil returns in December). If you have any questions or information, please contact Sara Davies, Email: sarabragg@aol.com or Cllr Helen Dimond, Email: dimond@hdimond.plus.com. Or simply have a chat with any member of the Group – Helen, Sara, Alan Burton, John Brewer or Clem Davies.

LYMPSTONE LIVES

MEMORIES OF LYPMPSTONE

By Alan Child

When I were a lad (many years ago) for a couple of weeks during the months of June and July the sweet aroma of new mown hay wafted through the village. It was 'Hay Making time'. The time when the local farmers harvested the lush summer grass in their fields for storage for winter fodder for their cattle.

Firstly the long grass was cut and left in the fields to dry. To ensure it was dry enough for storage it had to be turned over daily with pitchforks. When sufficiently dry it was manually raked into rows for transfer into large heaps by a contraption called a Sweep (A large wooden rake which was towed by a tractor or lorry) These hay piles were then transported to a dutch barn or hay rick where the dried grass was stored for winter fodder.

Each farmer had their own crew but I always worked for George Morrish of Underhill Farm alongside my father, George and Lambert Cann and Sam Eyres and of course George himself. Hard but enjoyable work but at the end of each day we were rewarded with a few jars of scrumpy in the cider shed.

Sadly these days are gone for ever. There are no longer any cattle farms in the Village, any grass that is stored is either baled or turned into silage and many of the hay fields have been developed for housing and are now concrete and tarmac. I feel very lucky and privileged to have enjoyed this wonderful part of Lympstone life.

BOWLING A WICKET MAIDEN OVER

The Annual Cricket Match at Harefield (for Friends of the Church) looks more like a proper game of cricket as the years roll by! Long gone are the days when you couldn't be out first ball (or LBW!) and a contrived tie was mandatory.

The Lymptone Training Band, the burgers, the bar and the ice cream may still be the star attractions – but both sides turned up with a competitive team.

Lymptone, batting first, got off to a brisk start, Mullen especially, who in characteristic fashion belted most balls to the boundary until the retirement score of 30. School's bowling, including their guest Chief's star Tom Johnson – looking good in proper whites – was mostly tidy, but singles were easy enough to find. Rendle was a revelation, clouting four boundaries on his way to a quick fire 21 not out, whilst McGregor found himself having to deal with the fierce bowling of school's best cricketer, held back to stop any late run feast. Our captain had the last laugh though, spoiling the lad's figures with a big six. The final tally was 174-3. Good, but not always good enough on this ground.

Village's best batters had given their bowlers something to bowl at. Wilkinson had Tom Johnson caught behind, but even John Carr could not keep School's leading lad (Dylan) quiet, though he did skittle their captain just as the 50 was posted.

Another big hitter joined young Dylan and School's run rate crept up. Defeat or victory lay in the hands of Lymptone's second string bowlers. Creighton took a little punishment but bowled straight and well for his 2 for 34. At the other end David Hall, slayed mercilessly on his last outing, saw his first ball hit for six. If his heart sank it didn't show – and his remaining 24 balls conceded just two singles and a wide – not to mention that rare spectacle in Lymptone cricket, a wicket maiden over!

The match now looked beyond School's reach – until their two undefeated big hitters were allowed back to the crease in the dying overs. Fifty in three overs was a tall task, but they went for it, until both holed out in the deep giving McGregor the remarkable tally of 3-8 in eight balls, and Lymptone victory. There were many good performances to relish – which we were very happy to do afterwards in the Saddlers Arms.

An entertaining evening, for players and spectators, raised £750 towards keeping Lymptone's mediaeval church standing.

Lymptone 174-3 (Burton 33 ret, James 30 ret, Mullen 30)

School 147-9 (McGregor 3-8, Creighton 2-34, D Hall 1-9)

Lymptone won by 27 runs. Man of the Match: David Hall by a whisker, whose strength of mind and accurate bowling stopped the rot at just the right time.

FREE TOURS OF GULLIFORD BURIAL GROUND

The Friends of Gulliford Burial Ground are holding their first public event on the 11th & 12th of August (Saturday & Sunday) at 10.30am & 2.30pm each day. The free tours will include an introduction to the history of the site and the chapels by Gill Selley, followed by researched stories of the lives of some of the dissenters buried there, from an artist to a whale merchant, by Angela Coles. Refreshments will be available, however parking is limited. This is a great opportunity to learn about this historical corner of Woodbury & Lymptstone.

HELP WANTED / NEEDED!

We have really enjoyed editing and publishing the Lymptstone Herald this year. Unfortunately we can't keep up with the advertising and need some help. We need someone who can keep a track of who has paid for what and organise invoices etc. It is a relatively small task and should only take a few hours each month but it's just too much for us on top of full time jobs, children and everything else. Ideally you will need access to a computer and email but you can manage it however you wish. Please get in touch with the editors if you can help.

SAM BANKS MEMORIAL FUND EVENING

A dinner at the Sailing Club, on 9 June, to raise money for the Sam Banks Memorial Fund proved a success for those attending and for the fund they were supporting. The evening started in glorious sunshine with drinks and canapés in the garden of Limekiln House to the accompaniment of Simon Blake's guitar and an exhibition of photographs by the Bangladeshi students whom the fund supports.

Then dinner was served in the Sailing Club with soprano, Margaret Aageson Hughes providing a set of songs with a river theme between courses. She was accompanied by Sam Nickells, a well known local pianist who has played for among others, the Lymington Military Wives Choir. Finally results of a silent auction were announced, boosting the evening's profit to over £1,300 – enough to provide full fees for a student at Pathshala Media Institute for a year.

The Sam Banks Memorial Fund was set up after the sudden death of Graham and Louise's son, Sam, in 2010 and has been providing bursaries for Bangladeshi students of photography at Pathshala South Asian Media Institute since 2011. The Fund supports students whose personal circumstances would otherwise make it very difficult for them to complete their studies. The evening brought the total raised by the fund so far to £39,942. Sam died while travelling in India aged 20, just three days after being delighted to hear that he had gained a place to study film and television production at the London College of Communication. His family wanted to set up a memorial for him which would acknowledge both the deep love he had developed for the Indian sub-continent in the preceding three months and his commitment to film.

Louise and Graham Banks would like to thank all who supported the evening, whether by helping with the preparations, serving food and drink and washing up, donating silent auction lots or simply buying tickets.
