The Third Man
(1949)

An American writer (Joseph Cotten) travels to shadowy, postwar Vienna, only to find himself investigating the mysterious death of his old friend, Harry Lime (Orson Welles).
Written by Graham Greene.

"One of the best British films of all time...
The absolute in spy classics."

Sunday January 27th 2019
Chinatown (1974)

A private detective (Jack Nicholson) hired to expose an adulterer finds himself caught up in a web of deceit, corruption, and murder. Directed by Roman Polanski.

"A never-bettered noir masterpiece."

Sunday February 24th 2019
Roman Holiday (1953)

A bored and sheltered princess (Audrey Hepburn) escapes her guardians and falls in love with an American newsman in Rome (Gregory Peck). Directed by William Wyler.

"This sublime and charming fable... A film to treasure."

Licensed Bar | Ice Creams | Free Film Notes

Friday September 14th
My Life as a Courgette
 (Switzerland/France 2016)

A poignant and beguiling animated film set in a French orphanage.
"A little miracle of gentleness, tenderness and intense, traditional Frenchness."

14.09.18

Friday December 7th
Paddington 2
 (UK/France/USA 2017)

When a valuable book is stolen, it's up to Paddington and the Browns to unmask the thief. With Ben Whishaw, Hugh Bonneville and Hugh Grant.
"A delightful sequel that will charm audiences of all ages." "Happiness is a film like this! It's a movie you should not miss."

07.12.18

08.03.19

Friday March 8th
The Thin Man
 (USA 1934)

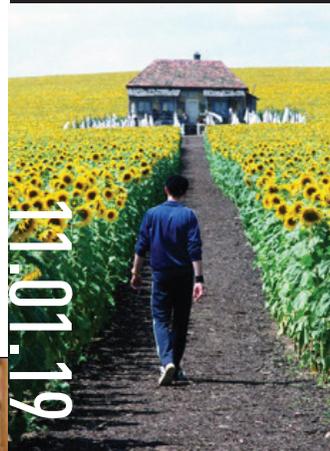

A former detective and his wealthy wife investigate a murder case, mostly for the fun of it. William Powell and Myrna Loy star in one of the most popular screwball comedies, based on a classic Dashiell Hammett novel.
"Tense and slick, this early thriller remains a true masterpiece."

Friday October 12th
The Limehouse Golem
 (UK 2016)

Against the backdrop of the early Victorian music hall, a series of murders terrifies the East End of London. Bill Nighy gives a spellbinding performance as the investigating detective.
"Dark, dangerous and seductive." "A devilishly good mystery."

12.10.18

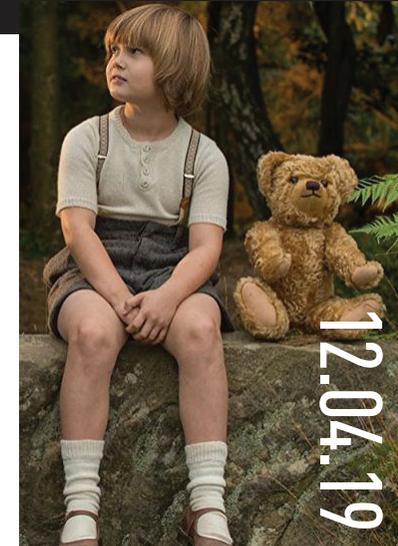

11.01.19

Friday January 11th
Everything is Illuminated
 (USA 2005)

A young Jewish American flies to Ukraine in search of his grandfather's past, and teams up with an eccentric pair of local tour guides - and their dog.
"Begins in quirkiness and ends in silence and memory." "It's funny and warm."

Friday April 12th
Goodbye Christopher Robin
 (UK 2017)

The enchanting tales of a boy and his bear bring comfort after the First World War. But with the eyes of the world on Christopher Robin, what will the cost be to the family?
"It skips nimbly between light and dark, war and peace, like a young boy finding his way through an English wood."

12.04.19

Friday November 9th
A Very Long Engagement
 (France/US 2004)

A young woman's search for her fiancé, who has disappeared from the trenches during World War One. Audrey Tatou and Marion Cotillard star in this romantic French war film.
"It grips and entertains like a detective story."

09.11.18

Friday February 8th
The Wonders
 (Italy/Switzerland/Germany 2014)

A family of beekeepers find their lives disrupted by a reality TV show. A charming coming-of-age tale, set in the Tuscan countryside.
"Bellissimo! as they say." "As powerful as it is enchanting. A pure delight."
 Limited tickets available for pre-film supper (on sale at January screening). Film 7:30pm as usual; meal starts at 6pm.
