

THE LYPMPSTONE HERALD

CHRISTMAS IS COMING

It seems everyone is looking forward to Christmas with lots of seasonal events on throughout the village.

Not so festive but something that could effect everyone is the community drop in event about flood work in the village on 18th December so do try to get there.

James at the Redwing is giving away two prizes for the Crossword this month so make sure you get your answers in!

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

A lively discussion was held at another busy Parish Council meeting with many different topics raised.

Public Session:

- Parking outside the Swan – a resident asked for clarification regarding ownership of the land between the Swan Wall and the public highway as they had received a parking ticket there. The Clerk is to clarify the ownership of this land.

- Another resident expressed concerns regarding pollution and sewage in the Wotton Brook. Cllr Dimond is already speaking with EDDC and the Environment Agency and will expedite this matter.

- The village store's shop window display was raised by a resident who would like to see it changed. All Councillors were against raising this with the shop, which is a vital asset to your village and needs community support.

- The Exe Estuary Trail – a further meeting has been held with DCC and it was requested money be put aside in the budget to support a feasibility report on the proposed changes.

- The Public Toilets – a resident raised how dated and shabby the public toilets were. The council agreed that a review was needed and will action this.

Flood Risk management – We gladly welcomed Cllr Corcos back from his mammoth charity motorcycle ride – it was great to see him back safely and healthy! He reminded everyone present that there would be a community drop in event on the 18th December 2018 for the public to learn more about LFRG and the Environment Agency (EA). The LFRG had compiled a full report for November which Cllr Corcos delivered with enthusiasm and presented to the meeting (as if he had never been away!) He also added that from January to approximately March there would be essential and urgent works to the wall along Wotton Brook in the car park. Unfortunately, this means that a possible 15 car parking spaces will be taken up by the EA whilst this work is carried out.

Casual Vacancy – The Chairman explained that we still have a Councillor vacancy. Remember, the best way to be part of the action, rather than just speaking from the public stand, is to become part of the Parish Council body to share your personal expertise and knowledge to get things resolved. If you think you could make a real difference, then please do get in touch with me, the Clerk, or any of our Councillors to apply.

Village Car Park - Andrew Ennis (Service Lead for Environmental Health and Car Parks) from EDDC attended the meeting to discuss the village car park. He explained, in detail, available parking spaces, permits sold to residents, profits, expenses inc maintenance, charges, wardens and enforcements. He was very informative and gave a clear insight into the pros and cons of the car park.

This then led to a further heated debate about the parking in general available in the village. It was resolved that in the New Year a working group should be set up to review matters.

Chairman's report – The Chairman said a huge thank you to Linda Lyon from the Community Hub Group for overseeing and organising a very successful community Armistice Day Remembrance weekend. All the feedback from Parishioners had been positive and welcomed. The Chairman also thanked the Royal Marines for lending their marquees, the history Society for their research and exhibition, the Scouts for serving the food and the PTFA for the cakes, teas and drinks. Couty Councillor Scott had facilitated a grant, and due to the huge number of volunteer hours, the Chairman estimated the weekend had cost the village some £200-£300 which was a fantastic achievement for an event on this scale. So, thank you, everyone!

Neighbourhood Plan Review – Cllr Longhurst reported that there was now a committee established to lead and oversee the review and they had already met twice. He explained that funding could be secured for the review and any consultancies. He added that this was new ground and a review had not been done before therefore he could not say, at this stage, whether it would be a rewrite or a simple tweaking of the current neighbourhood plan. There will be a first village open meeting on 24th January 2019 at 7pm in the Village Hall. Please come along, share your ideas and discuss proposals to shape the future of our village.

Gulliford Cemetery – The Chairman explained why Gulliford Cemetery had been closed and gates locked. See page 7.

Budget 2019-2020 – Cllr Atkins went through the budget proposed and with a couple of amendments everyone agreed with the proposals. An amended and final budget will be discussed at the January meeting.

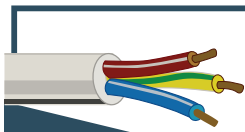

Estates – Last month the Parish Council requested feedback from parishioners regarding a self-closing gate to be installed at the bottom of the path between Trafalgar Road to Candy's Field. Currently no one has reported any opinions. The Parish Council welcome your views before a decision is made or action taken on your behalf. Finally, all Lympstone Councillors would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your continued support. May you all have a very Merry Christmas and Happy, Healthy New Year!

COMMUNITY DROP-IN EVENT ABOUT FLOOD WORK

18th December, Methodist Hall, 3-7 pm
Work is scheduled to repair and improve the flood defences in the car park and Chapel Road in early 2019, and this drop-in event is being organised by the Environment Agency to explain more about the project.

It will also be a good opportunity to learn more about the wider project which is being led by Lymptstone Flood Resilience Group and involves all of the flood risk agencies.

Please come along to find out more, ask questions, and share your views.

BOXING DAY SWIM AT LYMPSTONE

Lymptstone Sailing Club is continuing its tradition of organising a festive dip at Lymptstone Harbour. So instead of fighting through the traffic to get to the Swim at Exmouth this year, come down to the Harbour instead. Splash down will be at 10am. Everyone welcome, hot drinks will be available and changing facilities in the club house. A collection will be made towards club funds for club boats with 50% being donated to Exmouth RNLI. Bring the family down to watch even if you are not planning to go in the water yourself! Always a fun event and a breath of fresh air over Christmas.

LYMPSTONE GARDEN CLUB

With December being such a busy festive time, we're taking a break this month and planning to cheer up the New Year with a talk on Tuesday 15 January on '21st Century Cottage Gardens' by Sally Gregson of Mill Cottage Plants. Sally will look at why we love cottage gardens so much, how they have changed over the centuries and how they might develop in the future.

The talk is at 7.30pm in the Village Hall, entry is £3 on the door – all welcome, and no membership fee. There'll be refreshments, and plants for sale.

You may have heard that the Garden Club is planning a day trip to the RHS Malvern Spring Festival on Friday 10 May 2019. So that we can get the tickets and coach sorted, we do need to know who is interested in coming well in advance.

The cost for the day is £35 (for entry and coach travel). We'll be leaving at 8.30am, with a comfort stop on route (exact details will follow after booking). If you're interested, please contact Sue Wadhams by Friday 21 December: susanwadhams@yahoo.co.uk tel: 01395 260461. If you decide to join us, then we would need your payment of £35 by the end of January 2019.

Do pick up our events leaflet for 2018-19 (with Bob Flowerdew on the cover) at any of our events, outside the village hall and at various other local outlets – and also online on the Garden Club page of the village website www.lympstone.org

At each Club event we're now selling discounted advance tickets (£1 off in advance – £8) for our 9 March special event with Bob Flowerdew. Bob will be sharing his passion for 'No Work Gardening', and tickets for this are already selling – so if you're interested don't leave it too late to book. Contact Suki on 01395 269989 or email suki.commin@googlemail.com

News from the Garden Club is sent out regularly by email – if we don't have your details and you'd like to be kept up to date with what's coming up then please send your name and email address to windygardener@yahoo.co.uk

THIRD AGE PROJECT

The decision to meet at two week intervals in the Autumn 2018 has been very successful and meetings have been well attended. We look forward to starting again on the 1st February, 2019 with two week meetings and would be very pleased to see new Members at the Methodist Church Hall at 2.30 p.m. Many thanks for your help.

LYMPSTONE MUMMERS

22nd December

The Mummers will tour Lympstone pubs with the Village's traditional play on the Saturday before Christmas (December 22nd). We don't know the origins of our handed down script, but the verse of "Tom Bowling" sung at the end would have been well known to Lympstone fishermen some 200 years ago. Like most Mummers' plays, ours compresses England's history – from the Crusades to Empire – into a noisy ten minutes of comical defeat and rude revival of past foes. As always, we will stick strictly to our script, unless the odd ad lib should creep in....

Lympstone Mummers will burst thirstily into the Saddlers at around 8.15, fight their way through the Redwing at 9 and the Swan at 9.30 to be at the Globe by 10pm. A collection will be taken for the Children's Society.

Old Father Christmas (aka Tony Day)

PANTOMIME! LOOK BEHIND YOU!

No, it is not there, nor anywhere to be seen. Oh dear Players, where has the dear old Lympstone panto gone? It was such a wonderful way of involving everyone in the village, from 8 to 80. It is all very well putting on serious productions for adults but what about our youth? They are the future of our community, without them our Village Spirit will die.

Brian and Jo Cotton. (Former Panto Stage Manager & dresser.)

GULLIFORD BURIAL GROUND

As part of the Remembrance events held in Lympstone, Gulliford Burial Ground welcomed Exmouth Ceramic Group whose display of War & Peace, was set amongst the tombs, attended by a steady flow of people. Works of art included a wall of red poppies, a vase of white poppies, a stylised modern dove and hearts hang in the yew tree. Visitors to the burial ground would also have noticed a long section of the stone boundary wall, which had been leaning for sometime had finally fallen down. In order to make the neighbouring property secure the PC have decided to lock the gates to the burial ground until the work is completed. This is only a temporary measure and hopefully the work will be under way very shortly.

2018 POPPY APPEAL

Thank you to everyone who once again supported The Poppy Appeal this year. Despite the unfortunate late arrival of the Poppies which I have been told by the RBL was due to unprecedented demand and logistical problems at the Poppy Village in Aylesford, between the village and CTCRM we still managed to raise an enormous £4344.08. Once again I cannot thank enough my willing band of House to House collectors who were still prepared to go out and knock on doors almost a week late and in the knowledge that many people had already got their Poppies from elsewhere. I am also very aware that lots of villagers donated even though they had already got a Poppy so thank you everyone. On this occasion I would especially liked to also thank everyone involved in making the Armistice Weekend commemorations so special and such a success and for a number of additional donations given by individuals - you know who you are.

LYMPSTONE HISTORY SOCIETY

We had a fascinating talk from Martin Horrall in November with a miscellany of little known facts about churches – we found out about features such as gargoyles, mermaids, mason marks, Hunky Punks, and many other things that can be seen in our local Churches. We have one more talk before the Christmas break: Kim Strawbridge of Clinton Devon Estates will be with us on Thursday 13th December to tell us all about “The Restoration of Woodbury Castle”. As usual we will be in the Methodist Hall, Chapel Road, Lympstone, and the entry fee (including refreshments) is £3.50 for LHS members, and £4 for non-members.

Secretary, Lympstone History Society.

LYMPSTONE FILM SOCIETY

On Friday January 11th we will be showing the film ‘Everything is Illuminated’. A young Jewish American flies to Ukraine in search of his grandfather's past and teams up with an eccentric pair of local tour guides - and their dog. It's funny and warm. The doors open at 6.45pm and the show starts at 7.30pm. Non - members are welcome and can pay £5 on the door.

LYMPSTONE REMEMBERS

A huge thank you to everyone who volunteered and took part to make the weekend Armistice Centenary events so special! There are too many of you to mention individually.

A special thank you goes to all those helpers who stayed behind on Sunday evening in the mud and dark to help take down the marine tents. Also, so many of you supported behind the scenes, from providing the Exhibitions at the Village Hall and Gulliford Burial Ground, decorating the Church, providing the PA systems, organising Cliff Field tents and Beacon and serving the refreshments.

Although the weather was inclement at times - the mud, rain, darkness and cold on Sunday evening should have made us thoughtful of the men who endured those conditions, not just for a couple of hours, but for weeks on end in the trenches.

From the Film evening on Friday to the Beacon lighting on Sunday evening, we believe over 400 people attended the events. The whole community was involved, from the children who made and displayed their poppies to Mary Truell who so enthusiastically lit our Beacon.

Photographs of the weekend were taken by Rob Cousins and Nick Harries and are available to view on the website.

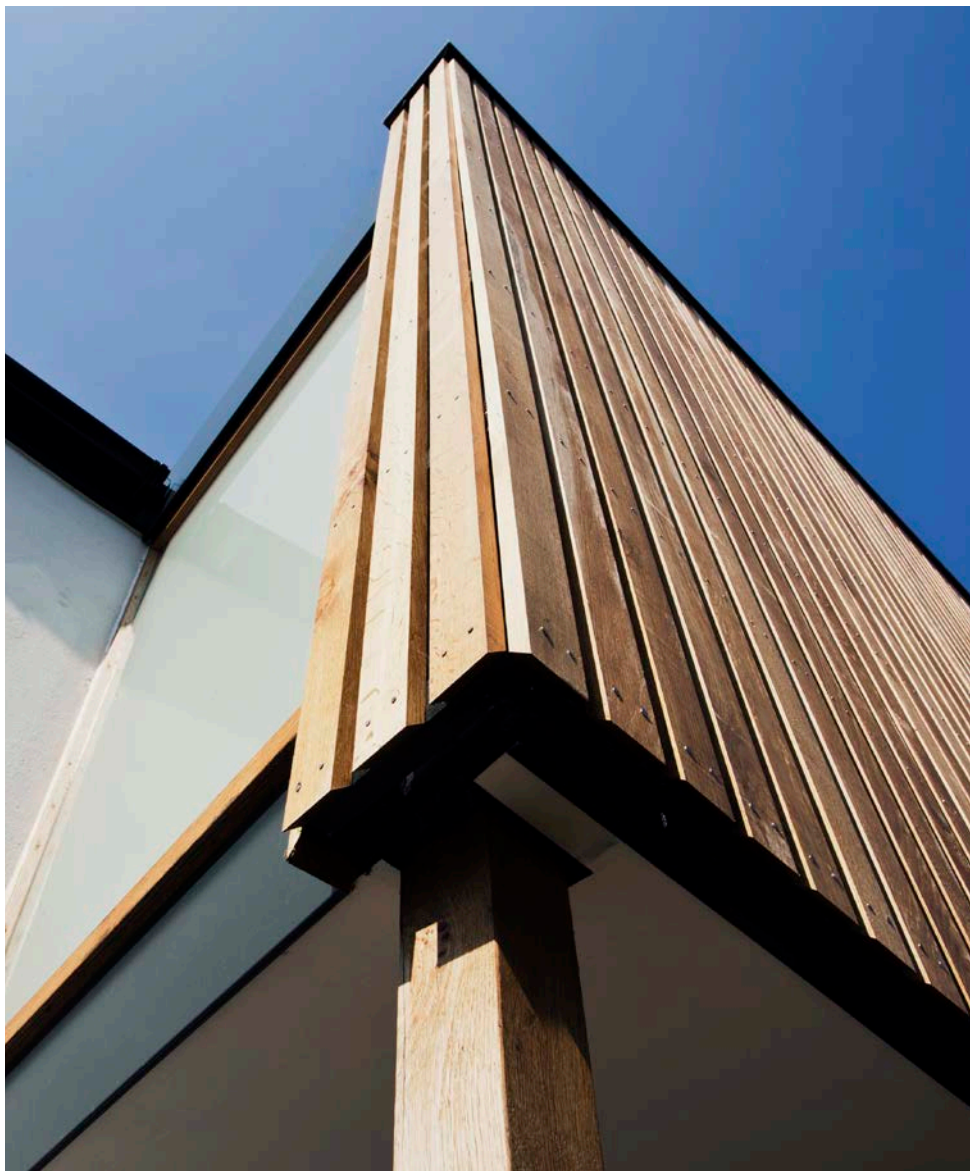

The Armistice Centenary Event was organised and financed by the Lympstone Community Hub Fund, which is given funding each year by the government through the Neighbourhood Plan. The main aim of the Community Hub is to facilitate and support events and projects in our village that will benefit the whole of our community and are free to participants. As this was a free community event Devon County Councillors also provided funding, which enabled the Village Hall to be hired for the whole weekend.

Earlier this year a wide cross-section of community members formed a strategy group to formalise how the Community Hub could operate to facilitate and to provide funds for events such as the Armistice Centenary. The intention for next year is to revive the 'Welcome to Lympstone' Booklet and organise a social event in the Village Hall to showcase the opportunities our Village offers. We also intend to facilitate and support a 'free' community event in summer 2019. A number of visitors to the '27 Men' Exhibition expressed an interest in researching more about Lympstone's history, which the Fund and Devon County Councillors could support.

More information about the Hub will be available in early Spring. Anyone interested in finding out more about the Hub, or who could offer support in any capacity, should contact Jenny Clark or Linda Lyon (malcandlinda@aol.com).

LYMPSTONE LIVES - BRIAN MATHER

How did you come to live in Lymptstone?

my wife, Jennifer, and I came to live in Lymptstone at the end of September 2004. I had been a headteacher in Tring, Hertfordshire for 25 years but had to retire early through ill health, cured by Devon life and some great medical consultants finding the correct daily heap of tablets. We came with our elder daughter, her husband and family so increased the village population by 7. At the time we had never been to the village before but it was convenient for Anne and John's work, and near to our other daughter and her family in Lamerton near Tavistock.

What do you consider your greatest achievement?

I would like to say having a hand in bringing up my two daughters but honestly I think Jennifer had more to do with that. I love my six grandchildren and it's great being a Great Grandpa too.

What is the best thing about living in the village?

Before coming to Lymptstone I had lived in towns and a city. Morecambe, where I was born, Manchester and Tring. Nothing prepared me for the close community feeling of the village and the vibrant community of people who want to be social and join Clubs and Societies to entertain and meet others. Lymptstone has all these things if you are prepared to go out and do it! I love helping at the Film Society, Lymptstone Entertainments, the Church, the Village hall, the Players and Exmouth Folk Dance Club.

What 3 things have made you who you are?

Tricky I think I need to cheat and add a fourth. My parents, influential teachers and my wife but not necessarily in that order and I have to mention the church, not for the meaning of life so much as the way to live it..

A PENSIONER TRAVELLED!

It's great to be back in Lymestone, having enjoyed my motorcycle travels of nearly six months through 14 countries in north, central and south America. I reached Ushuaia, the southernmost city of Argentina, on the 19th November after 20,481 miles on the road. Thanks to all of you who have followed my Facebook posts, and for your comments and support. I hope that, sometime in the new year, I will have the opportunity to share some photos and stories of my journey with you, in an informal talk and Q & A in the village.

You may remember that I am also trying to raise money for Hospiscare, and to those of you who have given to this good cause, thank you. If you would still like to donate just go on line to Virgin Money Giving, and search for Philip Corcos.

Thank you

Phil Corcos

LYMPSTONE'S OWN PERFORM IN PRAISE OF CIDER AGAIN!

It's almost time again for one of the highlights of the village's entertainment calendar, the annual Village Concert presented by Lymptone Entertainments. This features a variety of comedy, song, drama, and music, all provided by stars and performers from our very own village! You may be surprised to see your fellow villagers as you have never seen them before. This really is Lymptone providing entertainment for itself!

It's also worth knowing that proceeds go towards bringing professional performances to the village throughout the year. Do come along and help us provide lots more entertainment for Lymptone – an exciting programme for 2019 is already taking shape.

Venue: Village Hall

Date: Saturday 2nd February 2019

Time: 7.30 pm Tickets £8 adult, £4 under 16

Tickets available from Demelza on 01395 272243 or by email at boxoffice@lymptone-entertainments.net

Viv Day

A musical entertainment celebrating Devon's most famous drink will be performed by Paul Downes, Heather Redding and Graham Banks in Lymptone Village Hall on Twelfth Night – but at lunchtime! It features cider songs and sketches which tell the story of cider making in the county, and champion real farm cider as opposed to the fizzy commercial version.

Twelfth Night is traditionally the time for wassailing your apple trees, to make sure that they bear lots of fruit, and the show starts with a wassailing song and lots of noise to frighten the devil out of the trees. "Give I a gallon of cider" is the refrain of one of the songs, and under its influence we meet Farmer Tasker, who pays his workers in cider; a true blood Romany gypsy, first class, weaned on cider; and the marketing executive of Crossbow Cider, Mr Norman Pretence: "Crossbow shoots a bolt through your thirst!"

Originally devised and written by actors of the Orchard Theatre Company in 1979, it toured the pubs of North Devon and beyond. Directed then, as now, by Harland Walshaw, it was a popular success for the Beaford Centre's professional touring theatre.

Accompanying the 45 minute show will be a Cider Lunch, served at café tables, and included in the ticket price of £12.00. In Praise of Cider is presented by Lymestone Entertainments on Sunday, 6th January at 12.30pm and tickets can be had from Demelza, 2 Brookfield Cottages, boxoffice@lympstone-entertainments.net

LYMPSTONE HERALD NEW ADVERTISING RATES FOR 2019

These new rates will come in from next month for all new adverts and from January for ongoing adverts.

'Professional, efficient & good humoured'

I rate Wilkinson Grant very highly during the process of selling my property. The staff have been considerate, well informed and have dealt with me with exceptional good humour. Their handling of this whole process has been faultless. If selling a property might ever be considered enjoyable, then this friendly and efficient team can achieve it.
