

Lympstone History Society Programme of events 2019

Our Thursday talks are held in the Methodist Hall, Chapel Road (unless otherwise stated). Doors open at 7.00pm, talks start promptly at 7.30pm. Easy access from the train station and from the village car park (Underhill).

Thursday 21 st February	The detection of finds unearthed by members of the East Devon Metal Detecting Club Including Roman and Medieval finds and the Seaton Down Hoard The Detectorists
Thursday 21 st March	The Jurassic Coast and its Hinterland, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Tony Burges
Thursday 18th April	Brunel's Great Western Railway Brian Portch
Thursday 23rd May	AGM and 'Lympstone Vignettes: A film show of Lympstone' Brian Mather.
Thursday 19th September	The Life and Times of Samuel Pepys Tony Venning
Thursday 17th October.	Dawlish Warren, Past and Present: The physical aspects including formation, Instability, conservation, engineering and environment. Tony Buller
Thursday. 21st November	Recent Discoveries in Roman Exeter and its area Derek Gore
Thursday 12th December	NOT ONE OF US! Individuals set apart by choice, circumstances, crowds or the mob in Exeter, 1451. Todd Gray

Entry fee includes refreshments. Everyone welcome!

Entry fee includes refreshments. Everyone welcome!