PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

Public Session – Mrs Lyons explained that the ‘Living In Lymptstone’ event had been a huge success, the next village event will be the 75th VE Day Anniversary next May. The PC unanimously granted permission to hold the event and use the village hall. Cllr Hill has now been appointed as the community hub liaison Councillor.

A resident queried the cars parked on the road for the football club on a Saturday morning. She added that there was now solid traffic parked along the road with no space for other road users to pull over. The Chairman said an email will be sent to LFC to explain that this is unacceptable and to speak to their members about parking.

Another resident queried the money spent in certain sections of the PCs budget which the Clerk explained how the amounts of money had been spent. The Clerk reminded all members present that the finance was of the public interest and always readily available for anyone to request to view.

VHMC Proposal of becoming a CIO

The Chairman read a statement on behalf of the PC regarding their position and view on this matter (the statement can be found, in full, at www.lymptstone.org). The VHMC had sought legal advice on this and the PC now would also. It was agreed to hold a public meeting between the PC and VHMC to continue discussions around the charity change to a CIO and the rightful ownership of the property and land of the Village Hall.

Clerks report – The Clerk welcomed back Mr Carter to the PC who wished to stand again as a Parish Councillor. We still have four vacancies on the PC if anyone is interested you can contact any Parish Councillor or the Clerk for further information. The Clerk read the External Audit Report and recommendations. All documents are available to the public to view online and request hard copies for £2 from the Clerk. The Clerk read the correspondence received from Lymptstone History Society regarding fly posting adverts from groups outside the Parish. It was agreed that in future these could be taken down and returned to the owner with a note asking them to advertise in the Lymptstone Herald instead. The Clerk explained that she would be applying for a locality grant from DCC for remedial works in Candy’s Field and a new bench. The Clerk added that ‘Able Community Care’ door stickers and information regarding support for the elderly had been received. If anyone in the community would like some of this information for a group or individual who may benefit, then please contact me directly.

Reports from the Chairman, East Devon District Councillors and

Devon County Councillors –

The Chairman reported that the missing Exeter road sign on Burgmanns Hill would be reinstated. The Chairman sadly added that the Village had been subjected to much vandalism, the Clerk had reported it to police and had requested a heightened police presence in the Parish. The Chair reminded all present to be extra vigilant, keep yourself safe and report any vandalism immediately to 101. She added that due to vandalism the Gents public toilet had been closed and the Ladies was currently being used as a unisex facility in the interim. Quotes are currently being received to modernise the entire toilet block. The Chairman also announced the PC dinner that was booked at the Redwing on 15th November. She invited all members of the Council and Public to attend. If you are interested in going, then please contact Cllr Atkins on dga.potters@btinternet.com to book your space by 31st October. The menu choices and cost can be found at www.lympstone.org. Finally, the Chairman thanked all the Councillors for their constant hard work over the last couple of months. There had been a lot of meetings and decisions made for different causes. She also thanked the Clerk, who the Chair felt, not only served the PC but the Parish as a whole.

District Cllr Jung reported that he had spent a lot of time looking into the planning applications in the Parish and wanted all members to know he would support the PC in their recommendations.

County Cllr Trail explained that the proposed road sign for Gulliford burial ground had been cleared by Highways and now needed to be applied for. Cllr Trail informed all that the Devon Safer Together proposals were now closed, and future meetings had been put back. Nothing would be implemented until April 2020 at the earliest. Cllr Trail was pleased to report that the organised Exe Estuary clean up had seen 120 people turn up and get involved. There will be another clean up organised along the Exe Estuary Trail in due course.

Toddler Play Area and Activity Trail

It was agreed to contact Officers at EDDC to arrange a meeting with the children from the Primary School to share ideas and designs for both areas.

Matters raised by Councillors

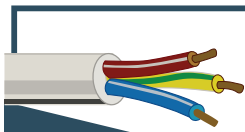

Cllr Atkins reported that he would be working with the Clerk to identify overgrown hedges and leaning walls/fences in the Parish and serving enforcement letters to deal with the potentially dangerous situations.

2019 POPPY APPEAL

The 2019 Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal House to House Collection will take place in Lympstone between Saturday 26th October and Saturday 9th November.

Every year I am so grateful to the band of willing volunteers who continue to give their time to assist with the collection as without them it would not be possible. However, as people move away from the village or aren't able to volunteer for personal reasons there are always opportunities to get involved. If you feel that you could spare just an hour of your time to volunteer as a House to House Collector during the two week period of the Poppy Appeal or man the static collection point outside the shop on Friday 8th or Saturday 9th November for an hour then please do contact me on 07968 494093 or email me at beckspearson@me.com

Please give generously and wear your Poppy with pride as I know you always do - thank you.

CHRISTMAS STARTS HERE

Here is a magical way to spend a winter's evening. Christmas in Lymptstone begins at the end of November, with a candlelit concert of English mediaeval carols, wonderfully sung by The Telling, the group who enchanted us with the music of Hildegard of Bingen earlier in the year. These uplifting and intimate seasonal songs will be mixed with lesser-known traditional carols from around Europe, as well as some old favourites such as Stille Nacht, the Coventry Carol (Lullay Lullay), and the Salutation Carol.

Singers Clare Norburn and Ariane Prüssner will be accompanied on mediaeval harps and percussion, as they introduce us to some of the most beautiful carols you will ever hear. Make a note in your diary of the evening of Friday, 29th November in Lymptstone Parish Church for a very special prelude to this year's Christmas celebrations. Spiced mulled wine and fruit cup will be served, along with mince pies and stollen; all included in the ticket price of £12.50.

Performance starts 7.30pm, doors 6.45pm ticket holders, 7pm others.

Tickets are already on sale from Demelza on 272243 and from boxoffice@lympstone-entertainments.net

Also see website: <https://lympstone-entertainments.net>

THE PEACE OF WILD THINGS

There are four boards on which Lympstone Entertainments posts poems in the village, when we are not using them to advertise our next event. At present they are carrying the poems of one poet.

Wendell Berry is an American farmer, and a poet for our time. Or as he describes himself, “A farmer of sorts and an artist of sorts.” The author of more than 50 books of poetry, fiction and essays, he has received the major poetry prizes - the T. S. Eliot Award, the Medal for Lifetime Achievement and the National Humanities Medal. For more than 40 years he has lived and farmed in his native Kentucky (where, by coincidence, this month’s Film Society film is set!) with his wife Tanya and their children and grandchildren.

The four poems can be found under the railway arch, opposite school hill, opposite the surgery, and at the top of Longmeadow Road. They speak of the consolations of wild things in a troubled world. “I go and lie down where the wood drake sings... and the great heron feeds.”

Full information about Lympstone Entertainments (and the Film Society) can be found on www.lympstone-entertainments.net.

LYMPSTONE HISTORY SOCIETY

Our October talk at 7.30pm on Thursday 17th October in the Methodist Hall, is entitled “Marking Place: Enduring inscriptions and persuasive maps” is from Prof. Patrick Dillon of Exeter University. Enduring inscriptions and persuasive maps are “curiosities’ in or about the landscape, some of which are historically significant. Persuasive maps present geographical information in the form of a map or diagram that denotes presence, ownership, value, belief, satire or humour relating to a particular place, rather than details about how to travel from A to B. They are typically made by individuals not organisations and are one-off documents, not part of a series. Enduring inscriptions are historical, religious, vernacular or other records cut, impressed, painted, or written in the landscape, on buildings or artefacts, on trees, on stone. Then, on Thursday 21st November Derek Gore will tell us about “Recent Discoveries in Roman Exeter and its area”. Entry is £4 (£3.50 for members), and our lifetime membership is a mere £10. Finally, a date for your diary: on 12th December Todd Gray will be returning to entertain us with his new talk “NOT ONE OF US! Individuals set apart by choice, circumstances, crowds or the mob in Exeter, 1451”.

STAGE, SCREEN & WORLD-WIDE WEB

www.lympstone-entertainments.net

A new website has been designed by Sue Mildenhall to bring up-to-date news of Lympstone Entertainments and Lympstone Film Society to the wider world. In fact it covers most of the professional presentations in the village, both on stage and screen, occasionally in garden or on the slipway, and sometimes in the church.

Lympstone Entertainments has been promoting a vigorous and varied programme of events for 15 years, and in the past dozen the Film Society has shown over 100 films. They are now independent organisations, but decided that a joint website would be helpful for those who are seeking an entertaining night out.

If you want to find out what's on, to read about forthcoming shows in more detail, have an advance peep at film programme notes, to learn where to buy tickets, and to read past and present issues of the Voice of Lympstone Entertainments, Drumbeat, then make www.lympstone-entertainments.net a regular port of call. You might be surprised to discover what's going on! We're going on...

Make sure that you do not miss our next talk on Scented Plants by the excellent speaker Jeremy Wilson of Strete Gate Nursery. Anyone who attended Jeremy's last talk on Camellias will already be aware of his depth of horticultural knowledge and love for his subject.

We are in for a treat but please note change of venue and day. Plants for sale from Strete Gate Nursery.

We were very grateful to Mary Benger of Burrow Farm Gardens who stood in at the last minute for our September talk. Sadly Christine Skelmersdale had a family bereavement and had to cancel but we hope to reschedule her talk as she is a leading expert and speaker on all aspects of bulbs and how to use them to advantage.

Don't forget our new leaflet for 2019-20 detailing our new horticultural events. They can be picked up at our events, local garden centres, outside the village hall and at various local outlets – also look online on the Garden Club page of the village website www.lympstone.org. LYMPSTONE TRAINING BAND

The Lymptone Training Band are in fine tune

The Lymptone Training Band have been busy over the summer with gigs as far afield as Lynton and Dunsford. The highlight had to be a full day workshop at Bicton College with young players from the South Derbyshire Music Centre band which concluded with a mass band concert of over 70 players.

We continue in our aim of introducing players of all ages and talents to the world of brass bands and recently welcomed Felix on trombone, who is just starting out, Sally, also on trombone, who is returning having played when younger, Hannah on cornet who has just moved here and Richard, one of our most loyal supporting parents, who has finally been lured into learning the B flat base. All are welcome. This year we are playing music as diverse as Queen's "Bohemian Rhapsody" through to Rodrigues "Concert D'Aranquez".

Even if you don't play, please do drop by on a Saturday from 10-12pm at the Methodist Chapel on Chapel Road to listen. We will be at the church service on the 20th October or come to our joint concert with Exeter Male Voice Choir on Saturday 23rd November at St Peters School, Exeter. We love the support you give us and hope you enjoy listening.

Roger Riggs, conductor (email lisa.riggs@talktalk.net)

LYMPSTONE SCOUT GROUP

The Scout Group are back for a new term.

Beavers, cubs and scouts have come back after the summer and activities are in full swing. The scouts are focusing on developing their outdoor skills whilst cubs are learning about the environment and exploring issues such as recycling and plastic pollution of the seas. Our Beaver lodge are working hard toward badges.

We had a very successful stand at the Living in Lymptone event in September where our young visitors made para cord bracelets using knots.

Whilst our groups meet separately, they are working together on 2 fundraising activities this term. Watch out for our Scout Group recipe book that will be coming out in December and hold the 19th December in your diary for our Christmas Bingo extravaganza. We'll give you more details soon.

We always welcome new members and at the moment have spaces in our Beaver and Scout Troops. If your child is interested, please contact our Scout Group Leader, Mike Goom (email mikegoom@gmail.com)

LYMPSTONE WI

Meeting Wed 2nd October

Ms Heather Penwarden, a retired mental health, nurse gave an animated talk on dementia of which there are around 40 types. She reminded us of the differing types of memory and memory loss. Sadly there is no cure, but drugs can control some symptoms. Heather encouraged us all to stay mentally and physically fit, and suggested the best relief from dementia is socialising!

In September, 25 members enjoyed a sunny trip on the horse drawn Tiverton Canal Barge; we were also represented at the 'Living in Lymptone' function.

Members wishing to attend the Gloucester Christmas Market were asked to sign up immediately.

2nd November, we look forward to welcoming villagers to our 'Soup and Pud event', there will also be a fund raising cake sale.

19th October 2.00pm Bulb planting at the Village Hall. The Centenary Committee will plant 100 daffodil bulbs at the Village Hall and all are welcome; bring a trowel or bulb planting tool, a kneeling mat and wish for good weather. We hope to buy a defibrillator to position at The Saddlers Arms and need to generate more funds. The tally for goods to the Community Larder has reached 91, it is hoped that members will continue to donate to this worthy cause in the future.

We have raised 2 skittles teams and the first matches will be next week

Lympstone WI welcomes new members. We meet on the first Wednesday of the month in the Methodist Hall at 2.30pm. Further details available on the village website.

THE CURRY LUNCH

Sunday, 3rd November 2019

You know it's Autumn, because the annual Curry Lunch approaches. It is one of the most sociable and enjoyable events in the Lympstone calendar, and guests are invited to arrive at the Village Hall at 12.30pm, and take refreshments at the bar, in time for the 1pm serving.

As ever, the spiciest cooks in Lympstone are seeking out old colonial recipes, and will serve up a selection of meat and vegetable curries, delicious dal, crispy poppadums, basmati rice, a variety of accompaniments, and cooling desserts.

The popular Curryfest helps to raise funds for the Friends of the Church, who contribute to the cost of maintaining this ancient and beautiful building with its mediaeval tower.

Tickets (still at only £10 for adults and £5 for children under 13) must be booked in advance from Demelza, 2 Brookfield Cottages, Lympstone EX8 5ES, tel. 01395 272 243, or by posting money through her door.

EAST DEVON PEBBLEBED HEATHS

Have your say on proposals designed to improve visitor access to the East Devon Pebblebed Heath whilst protecting wildlife and habitats.

This autumn a visitor access consultation will run from 23 September until 4 November 2019 where we will be asking local people and users of the commons to let us know what they think of plans to improve visitor infrastructure across the heaths.

We have been working with the South East Devon Habitat Regulations Partnership (SEDHRP) and an external consultant to produce an advisory report which makes proposals that balance the need for improved visitor experiences on the heaths while at the same time protecting this important conservation area. Due to the site's European wildlife designations, funding can be drawn down from the SEDHRP to pay for this work because measures can help reduce the negative impact of local development pressure related to the delivery of the Local Plan.

Suggestions from the report include:

- Improving access for emergency vehicles to reduce response times.
- New information boards with maps and route markers for suggested trails.
- Improving car park accessibility and layout while at the same time helping to protect ancient monuments and wildlife.
- Increasing visibility in car parks to reduce theft, criminal incidents and antisocial behaviour.
- Improving car park surfaces and entrances for improved safety and visibility.
- NOT introducing car parking charges.

The full report is available at www.Southeastdevonwildlife.org.uk/visitors. With a growing population, visitor numbers on the heaths are likely to increase. This work aims to ensure the site is able to cope with the impact of this increase, as well as making the heaths an easier and safer place to enjoy for those that already spend time here. Whilst working on these proposals we have been mindful that this is one of East Devon's most cherished landscapes and a shared space used by a range of people for different reasons.

We hope all those who enjoy and value the heaths will take up this opportunity to provide feedback on the proposals. You can get involved in the following ways:

1. View proposed changes in detail and talk to our teams to find out more at three drop-in events:
 - Four Firs car park, between 0900-1300 on 28 September
 - Joney's Cross car park, between 1300-1700 on 10 October
 - Exmouth Town Hall, between 1400-2000 on 17 October.
2. Look at the proposals online and answer a short survey www.Southeastdevonwildlife.org.uk/visitors
3. Send comments by email to habitatmitigation@eastdevon.gov.uk with 'PBH visitor experience consultation' in the subject box.
4. Send comments by post to: Kim Strawbridge, Pebblebed Heath Conservation Trust, Rolle Estate Office, Bicton Arena, East Budleigh, Budleigh Salterton, EX9 7BL.

When the consultation closes, we will consider all the comments submitted and make our responses available. We hope that funding will be approved in January, once plans are finalised following the consultation.

“I WAS ON THE EDGE OF MY SEAT...”

The Film Society's November showing is a true-crime drama – with a difference. The plotters are well-off college students from Kentucky, and they are planning to steal books from their University's Library. But not just any books. One is a rare edition of Darwin's Origin of the Species, and the other is Audubon's exquisitely-illustrated Birds of America, valued at $12 million.

This brilliant and tense thriller, American Animals, made just last year by British director Bart Layton, includes interviews at various points in the film with the four who attempted the bizarre heist, now some 14 years older (and wiser?), and with the middle-aged female librarian who guarded the books.

"I was on the edge of my seat," said one reviewer. "Thoughtful and engrossing, weird as hell," said another.

There is still time to join the Film Society (www.lympstone-entertainments.net) or you can pay £5 on the door of the Village Hall on Friday 8th November to see this film. Don't forget that the bar opens in the Function Room at 6.45pm, for a much-enjoyed social gathering.

As at all the best cinemas, there are ice creams in the interval!

LYMPSTONE CRICKET MAKES HISTORY

History was made not once but twice in Lympstone CC penultimate game of the season versus a side from the Midlands played in the lovely ground of Ashburton. First, Ben Abrahams became the first to score a century for Lympstone off only 74 balls. Ben put on over 150 with Dan Maytum (who made a stylish unbeaten 50) and Lympstone reached over 200 without loss (another record) before we lost our first wicket, the free scoring Mark Scoble.

Ben's feat was matched though when James Macgregor was given the new ball. James proceed to destroy the opposition take a hat trick and a "five-for". What made James's feat even more impressive was that all 5 of his victims were bowled! The game was part of our end of season tour ending a very successful season for the team. Particular thanks to our scorer and statistician Tony Day for his sterling work during the season. As always we are always welcoming new players, umpires, helpers or even sponsors for the 2020 season.
