Friday 10 September 2021 Knives Out (2019)

Daniel Craig plays the detective in this enjoyable murder-mystery, one of the wittiest and most entertaining films of 2019.

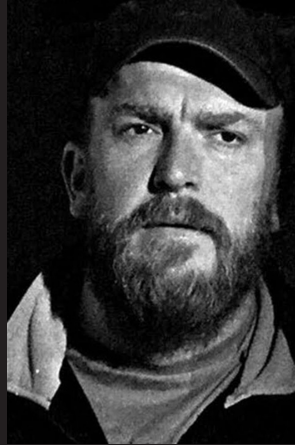

Friday 10 December 2021 The Personal History of David Copperfield (2019)

A Christmas treat. Armando Iannucci's hugely enjoyable version of Charles Dickens' great novel of childhood and growing up.

Friday 11 March 2022 Bait (2019)

Tensions rise to breaking point between locals and tourists in a Cornish fishing village. 'A genuine modern masterpiece'.

Friday 8 October 2021 The Two Popes (2019)

Unexpectedly light-hearted and very funny. Anthony Hopkins and Jonathan Pryce are a joy to watch as a winning Vatican odd couple.

Friday 14 January 2022 Maudie (2016)

The life of the Nova Scotian folk artist Maudie Lewis, heart-warmingly played by Sally Hawkins. Irresistible.

Friday 8 April 2022 Wild Rose (2018)

Fresh from prison, a Scottish girl pursues her dream of becoming a country music star. A truly star-making turn from Jessie Buckley.

Friday 12 November 2021 Woman at War (2018)

This story of an Icelandic eco-warrior is triumphant and exciting, and unlike anything you've seen before.

(Subtitles)

Friday 11 February 2022 Il Postino (1994)

Our classic film this season tells of a shy postman's friendship with the great Chilean poet Pablo Neruda. An international gem.

Limited tickets for pre-film Italian supper – on sale at January screening.

Friday 6 May 2022 The Constant Gardener (2005)

Ralph Fiennes and Rachel Weisz are riveting in this political conspiracy thriller, based on the novel by John le Carré. Good old-fashioned storytelling with 'a terrific pulse of energy'. Preceded by AGM.
