LYMPSTONE HISTORY SOCIETY

Presents

"The Victorian Way of Death"

A look at all aspects of death in the Victorian period, including superstitions, mourning clothes, funerals, death photography, the necropolis railway, and the early difficult start of cremations.

A talk by Charlotte Coles, BSc MSc MCIfA
(Senior Finds and Archive Officer)

Friday 16th October 7.30pm

Lympstone Village Hall

Entry £3.50 for LHS members, £5 for non-members.

Doors and bar open 6.45pm